Torpoint

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia
(Redirected from Torpoint, Cornwall)
You have new messages (last change).

Torpoint (Cornish: Penntorr) is a town in the far South East of Cornwall, England, separated from the City of Plymouth by a stretch of water referred to as the Hamoaze, which itself is the mouth of the River Tamar. It is on the Rame Peninsula.

Location within the British Isles

Origin of name

It is a common tale that Torpoint's name is derived from Tar Point, a name given because of the initial industry on the west bank of the Hamoaze. However this is actually a nickname given by workers, torpoint meaning prominent/rocky point in dialect.

Wooden ships used to have their hulls waterproofed using tar. To facilitate this, a square ballast pond was built in the estuary with an entrance port on one side. A ship would enter the ballast pond and be tied to one wall. Then on the low tide, the ship would lean on one side to allow the tarring. On the next tide, the ship would be tied to the opposite wall to complete the job.

History

Torpoint was established by Sir Richard Carew-Pole in the Parish of Anthony in 17xx.

Due to the presence of Devonport Dockyard, the town grew as Dockyard workers settled there.

The establishment of the Royal Navy's main training facility, HMS Raleigh, on the west side of Torpoint, boosted the number of inhabitants even more.

Torpoint's link to Plymouth (and Devonport) is faciltitated by three passenger and vehicle ferries. The current ferries are self-propelled across the river by pulling themselves on chains. These chains sink to the bottom to allow shipping movements in the river. The ferry journey takes approximately 10 minutes.

Torpoint's population is approximately 11,000. There are a number of good pubs and restaurants in Torpoint and one night club. This night club is called the 'Harbour Lights' commonly referred to in it's local dialect as the 'loyts'. The harbour lights is reasonably well know due to HMS Raleigh being located in Torpoint and even appeared in jackspeak , a dictionairy of matlow words.

In the Cornish language Torpoint is called Penntorr, which is now the name of a local folk band.

DRIVE REACHES SUM OF $3,372--TIME IS EXTENDED

Charleroi Mail 30 June 1925

The Legion drive reached the sum of $3372 at the time set for the drive to end last night.

Every person did not get an opportunity to contribute, so the Charleroi post will hold the drive open until Thursday evening of this week.

By the list of subscribers as published in the Mail of today, and will be published at a later date, it is planned to see that every person who wants to share in the work of caring for the disabled heroes and orphans of those who sacrified most, can do so. Many people are helping the workers by sending in their contributions. See to it that all do their share, and thus make up the $650 balance due on this quota of $4025.

The Legion appreciates, greatly, the whole-hearted cooperation of the good citizens who were able to contribute, and also the moral support of those who could not give, it being considerate of the depression in industrial lines at present.

Donora Driver Injured In Odd Auto Accident

Suffering from a fractured skull at the Charleroi-Monessen hospital as a result of an odd automobile and street car accident in Donora, Saturday afternoon, Bert Gallarin, 50, of 550 McKean avenue, Donora, is "resting well," according to hospital reports this morning.

According to Donora police, Gallatin was riding in his car on McKean avenue and as he approached the street car, standing by at the end of the line at First street and McKean avenue, a tire on Gallatin's car blew out and the auto swerved and hit the street car, then went over a sidewalk and struck a four-foot wall. The car was almost demolished.

Dallas Martin, his wife, Gertrude, of California, and their baby escaped injury when their car stalled on the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks and was hurled against an automatic safety signal support by a mail train. The train was 16 minutes late at Roscoe station and had slackened speed to make its regular stop.

Martin, unaware that the train was so close, drove his car, in which his wife and baby were riding, partly onto the track before seeing the train. Then he tried to back away, but the motor stalled, and the train caught the front of the light coupe and hurled it against the automatic safety signal support.

Persons nearby rushed to the aid of the family, but no one was hurt.

Holiday Crashes

A Belle Vernon woman was seriously injured, a Charleroi man was hospitalized and a Donora man miraculously escaped death in separate traffic accidents on Mon Valley highways over the Thanksgiving holiday.

Mrs. James (Lillian) Owens, 72, of 410 Graham St., Belle Vernon, received multiple injuries Wednesday night when she apparently walked into the path of a bus near the intersection of Broad Ave. and Short St., Belle Vernon.

Mrs. Owens was in "fair" condition this morning in Charleroi-Monessen Hospital with numerous cuts, a concussion, possible skull fracture, possible fracture of both hands and mild shock.

North Belle Vernon Police Chief Joseph Delia Jr. said the accident occurred shortly after 6 p.m. as the bus was proceeding down Broad Ave. hill.

Delia's report was not complete since he has been unable to question the victim. Delia said the woman and a friend were apparently attempting to cross the street to board a bus coming up the hill.

The unidentified driver passed two cars parked on the right side of the road — one of which the woman's husband was driving — when he said he heard a "thump" and thought it might have been a door of one of the parked cars. He stopped and saw the woman lying on the pavement. Delia has also

Riverwalk and Museum

In September, 1999, the Greater Charleroi Community Development Corporation, working with the Steel Industry Heritage Corporation revceived a Pennsylvania Heritage Parks Special Study Grant. The purpose of this study was to develop preliminary site plans for riverfront development in Charleroi. The proposed development would include: a landing dock for tour boats and pleasure craft, a 1.1 mile riverwalk along the Monongahela River, a visitor center/museum, and an observation tower to observe the operation of Lock #4.

The grant applicant, the Greater Charleroi Community Development Corporation (GCCDC), a nonprofit community development corporation (CDC), incorporated in 1988 to serve the communities of Charleroi, North Charleroi, Speers, Twilight, Stockdale, Fallowfield Township, and Dunlevy. GCCDC is one of seventeen CDC's that joined together to form the MON VALLEY INITIATIVE (MVI), a coalition representing 33 communities throughout the Monongahela Valley. The local CDC's, including GCCDC, are made up of volunteers interested in the sustained development of their communities. Professional staff is available at MVI to provide technical and administrative assistance.

The study resulted in site plans which include locations for the major elements of the riverfront development with preliminary cost estimates for construction. The following elements are addressed in the site plans:

1. Landing dock area
2. Riverwalk alignment
3. Observation tower location
4. Visitor Center/Museum location
5. Multi-media exhibits
6. Parking/associated facilities

The location of the study encompasses a 1.1 mile long section of the riverfront on the west bank of the Monongahela River approximately from mile point 41.25 to mile point 42.25. The proposed facilities would be immediately adjacent to the existing Charleroi recreation area which includes open green areas, ballfields, playground equipment and pavillions with picnic tables. A strip mall is located between the town and the recreation area.

Both the community and facilities developed by this study are readily accessible from Interstate 70 with east and west bound exits, the Mon Fayette Expressway, and an active railroad track adjacent to the proposed facilities. There is potential for favorable economic impact on the community from these modes of transportaition in addition to the planned water traffic.

All forms of transportation provide convenient and easy access to Charleroi for visitors and locals. The Penn-Dot traffic count on Route 70 is 42,000 cars per day (2001 data). The Charleroi Exit on Interstate 70 is located 1.5 miles south of the project area. The Mon Fayette Expressway is about 3 miles away. Railroad facilities are located within 600 yards of the project site and could accomodate day trip excursions. These trail trips are already a popular family activity and could be developed for Charleroi and nearby attractions.

The project area has some very unique features:

a. The river bank is not encumbered by railroad track.

b. A working lock is visible from the site, and an historical lock is also visible.

c. Some of the historic buildings are still in use for glass production and some employee/company housing dates to the founding of the Hussey-Binns Shovel Factory.

d. Much of the original architecture in the town is preserved or is being preserved. The preservation will be formally submitted for consideration as an historic district.

HISTORIC BACKGROUND

The proposed project and its many pieces relate harmoniously and enhance the industrial themes that are the focus of Charleroi's rich industrial history, one that would be preserved and highlighted by the visitor center/museum, the observation tower and associated multi-media exhibits, offering educational opportunities for scholars of all levels.

Charleroi, founded in 1890, was named after Charleroi, Belgium. Belgian businessmen established a production facility and brought glass workers and technologists from Belgium. Within a few years, the town grew to become a major producer of glass products. These products included bottles, plate glass, and lamp chimneys. The Charleroi Plate Glass company was founded in 1884. The plant was purchased by Pittsburgh Plate Glass (PPG) in 1895 and named "Works No. 6". The plant operated until the late 1930's.

In 1893, George A. MacBeth founded the "George A. MacBeth Pearl Glass Lamp Chimney Company". The facility included a blowing room, finishing department and warehouse. The products were marketed throught North America, Europe and Africa. The MacBeth company merged with a firm owned by Thomas Evans. Among many glass products produced by MacBeth-Evans was colorful tableware known as "depression glass", which in now collected and sought after worldwide. The production of glass continues today at World Kitchen, the present owner of the facility.

The industrial base of Charleroi included Hussey-Binns Shovel Works, which produced shovels for the coal industry. This was important since coal, at that time, was loaded by hand into wagons underground. Also in the area was the Lee Norse Company, which produced a revolutionary continuous mining machine. That company was subsequently purchased by Ingersol-Rand and continued to operate until recent times.

A quality wooden toy producer, Channel Craft, Inc., currently occupies a property adjacent to the river in North Charleroi within the area proposed for this study. Channel Craft produces toys in a modern factory and markets them internationally.

Charleroi's diverse and prosperous industrial history, as reviewed briefly above, could not have survived and flourished without the vital transportation link provided by the Monongahela River. Use of the river as a transportation tool extends back to the pre-Columbian Monongahela Indians, who used the river for food as well as transportation. The locks and dams for flood control and transportation were completed through to Morgantown, West Virginia in 1889. The completion was commemorated when the steamboat "James G. Blaine" navigated the river from Pittsburgh to Morgantown on November 8, 1889. Charleroi was founded the next year, 1890. The principal element for glass production, sand, was mined from naturally occurring deposits along the nearby banks and shipped by "sand boats" on the river. Cheap and abundant energy, Pittsburgh seam coal, was mined throughout the river basin and transported by river to the factories. The ease of transportation offered by the river encouraged the expansion of business in Charleroi, forever tying the town's history to the river.

Each piece of the proposed riverfront development project is an integral part of the whole showcase of Charleroi's industrial past. All of the pieces would come together to form a community resource designed to spotlight industrial development in Charleroi and how that tied into neighboring communities and busineses to form a region rich in history.

The observation tower would provide a clear view of the currently operating Lock #4, allowing observers to see coal and other basic materials locking through the chambers. This modern lock (on the east bank) and the former lock (on the west bank) will both be visible from the propsoed site. An observation area of this type is located at the Mira Flores Lock, Panama Canal, and is an extremely popular tourist attraction.

The proposed visitor center/museum and observation tower would provide an opportunity for the link between the river and Charleroi's industrial heritage to come alive to current residents and visitors to the riverfront. The riverwalk and observation tower would allow visitors to see firsthand how the river is still currently being used by industry to move coal and other materials.

The vistor center/museum would house exhibits which would chronicle, among other things, stories and industrial artifacts from the abovementioned companies, the history and development of the lock and dam flood control system with emphasis on Lock #4, exhibits on past flooding of the river, information on the Monongahela Indians, the history of glass production and smaples of glass, current toys produced that could be for sale and more.

ROB POOL ROOM SATURDAY NIGHT

The poolroom of Naylor & Gray on McKean aveenue, was entered some time late Saturday night, by thieves who got away with about $70 worth of tobacco and cigarettes, as well as about $18 in money Entrance was gained through the rear of the pool room. It is believed the robbery was committed by some one familiar with the location as a rear window on which there was no fastening was opened, which allowed the burglars easy access to the room. The shutter was lifted off by the thieves, who apparently had no difficulty in getting in and out of the building.

SURPRISE SHOWER COMPLIMENTS BRIDE-ELECT

Members of the Tuesday Night Club, at their regular meeting Tuesday night in the home of Misses Bee and Nonnie Brand, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Brand, of Charleroi, were hostesses at a surprise miscellaneous shower honoring one of the club members. Miss Theresa Naylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lee, of Crest avenue, whose marriage to William A. Pancook, of Monessen, will be a quiet event of Thursday, October 8.

Two tables of five hundred were in play with awards for the evening's high scores going to Miss Jane Baker and the guest of honor, Miss Naylor. The latter was also the recipient of a beautiful taffeta quilt, presented her by the club members, in addition to other gifts.

Following the card games the guests were served an attractively appointed two course lunch in the dining room, where a color scheme of pink and blue was carried out. The shower theme predominated with a large sprinkling can arranged over the buffet from which pink and blue streamers extended. Attached to each streamer was a gift parcel.

Attending the party were the bride-elect, Miss Naylor, the hostesses, Bee and Nonnie Brand, Peggy Lee, Jane Baker, Virginia Anderson, Leona Turtzer and Maxine Ducoeur, members of the club, and Miss Naylor's mother, Mrs. Peter Lee, Miss Marie Vellettay and Mrs. Brand, mother of the hostesses.

All Charleroi High pigskin adherents have to look forward to following today's battle at Monongahela are battles with Jeannette and Monessen.

The Jays will come here to aid the Steppers in ringing down the curtain on the home schedule next Saturday. When the game was scheduled it was carded as either for the coming Friday night or Saturday afternoon. Due to the cold weather it has been decided to play the contest in the afternoon rather than ask fandom to brave the chilly night air.

Next Saturday's game will mark the final appearance of several Red and Black stars on the home gridiron. Captain Fillingham, Hal Bruckner, Joe Slavonia, Andy Wagner, Tom Woods, Jack Naylor, Howdy Sowden and Bruno Paterline are all seniors.

118 Students Receive Diplomas

by invocation by Rev. John O. Martin. A violin solo, "Thais," by Massenet, was then rendered by Emile Bernowski, with his sister, Freda, accompanying. Both are members of the class of 1931.

Following the address of the evening, a vocal selection, "Sink, Red Sun," by Teresa Del Riego, was then rendered by Miss Margaret Russell, of Charleroi, with Miss Virginia Mountser, accompanying. Miss Russell found it necessary to respond to an encore. Later in the program she sang again "Wiegenlied" (Lullaby), by Brahms.

Diplomas were presented by Attorney Roy I. Carson, of Charleroi, after a short talk. He congratulated members of the class on having completed the course and wished them success in whatever lines they may follow. The Rensselar Medal given to the boy showing the greatest progress in mathematics in the four years course, was presented to Humbert Riva.

A presentation of gifts followed, members of the May class through their president, Humbert Riva, giving the high school a check for $400, as a payment on a biology laboratory, which is much needed. The mid-year class, through the president, William Bankerd, then presented a rug to the school, both of which were accepted by Prof. W. H. Clipman, principal of the high school.

The members of the class were arrayed in caps and gowns and presented a fine appearance on their last public appearance as members of the class of 1931. Several gifts of flowers were received just before the closing exercises, and presented to membersof the class.

The programs were in two colors, green and white and nile green and silver, the colors respectively of the January and the mid-year classes. It might be well to add, to, that the diplomas this year were a departure from the usual form, as instead of the large diplomas, a booklet was presented each member, bound in leather, containing the names of the class members as well as the diplomas. The latter can be taken from the cover and framed, should any member care to do so.

When the class of 118 had received their diplomas it made a total of 1223 that have graduated from the institution. This was the third largest class, the largest class graduating in 1929, when 143 received diplomas. In 1928 there were 128 and last year, 108.

The class sang their Alma Mater and the Cougar fight song accompanied by a tape of the 1964 band, provided by Nelan.

ELLEN, CHILD OF JACK AND MARGARET

Naylor - Cappelli rites

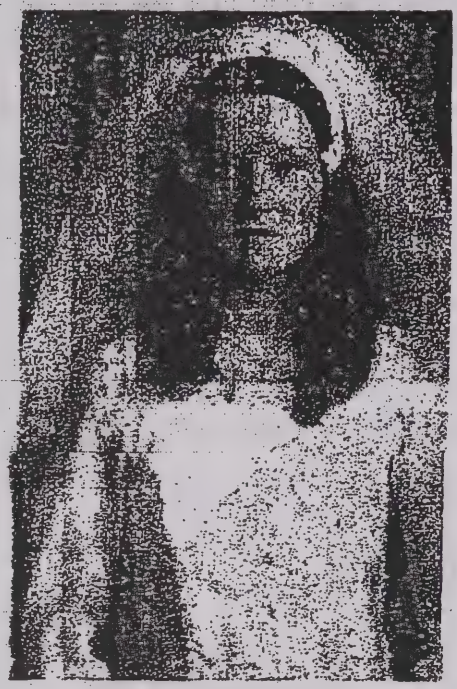

Ellen Jean Naylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack J. Naylor, 117 State St, Speers Hill, Charleroi, became the bride of Robert Joseph Cappelli on June 1. He is the son of Mrs. Dallas Morgan, 160 State St., Speers Hill and the late Leo J. Cappelli.

The couple pledged their vows in a candlelight ceremony at the Speers United Methodist Church at 7 p.m. The double ring ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Robert C. Guffey. Mrs. Walter Zelnis, Speers Hill, was the organist and she played various selections preceding the ceremony. For the processional, the Wedding March from Lohengrin was played. She accompanied the soloist, Robert Whitfield, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride chose a floor length gown of white silk organza over peau de soie, in a princess style. Scalloped venise lace appliques outlined the scoop neckline. The same trim accented the long fitted sleeves at the wrist and the hemline of the skirt which flowed into a chapel train. The three tiered bouffant veil, elbow length of silk illusion was attached to a lace and pearl studded camelot styled headpiece. She carried a cascade arrangement of white rosebuds, stephanotis and ivy, accented with white satin streamers.

Matron of honor, Mrs. James Liviskie Jr. of Pittsburgh, sisterof the bride, wore a floor length gown of mint green crepe, accented with pale pink flowered trim aroynd the scoop neckline, short sleeves, and empire waistline. She wore a matching camelot headpiece which was made by the bride's mother. She carried a colonial bouquet of miniature pink carnations and baby breath with matching pink streamers.

Bridesmaids were Kristie Burns of Charleroi and Sheri Nassar of Maple View. Junior bridesmaid was Barbara Cappelli, sister of the groom, of Speers Hill. They were attired similarly to the honor attendant and carried matching bouquets.

Mrs. Robert Joseph Cappelli
(Ellen Jean Naylor)

Best man was Fred Karlosky of Charleroi. The ushers were Jeff Konsugar, brother-in-law of the groom, Charleroi; Robert Jurkiewicz, Charleroi and William Naylor, brother of the bride.

An honored guest was the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Walter Wilde from Sanford, Florida.

The bride was honored at a pre-nuptial shower given by her attendants. A rehearsal dinner was given by the groom's parents at Sweeney's Restaurant in Rostraver Twp.

The bride is a graduate of Charleroi Area High School and has completed two years at California State College, majoring in elementary education. The groom is also a graduate of Charleroi Area High School and was graduated with high honors from California State College where he majored in secondary education. He has accepted a teaching assistantship at Michigan State University at East Lansing, Michigan. There he will work for his doctorate in probability and statistics. AN ARTICLE IN THE VALLEY INDEPENDENT inspired the girls of Speers Hill Girl Scout Troop 4035 to embark on a program to aid the needy. After reading about the need for used clothing the girls got busy and collected 10 cartons of apparel in their three-week house-to-house effort. The wearable clothing has been turned over to the United Fund of the Mon Valley. It will be distributed through the UF Mon Valley Used Clothing rooms, from which 10,000 articles have been passed out in the last five months.

Mrs. Peggy Scheponik, leader of the troop, reports that the girls felt they should do something " in an effort to serve their community and the valley." When they became aware of the clothing need through the newspaper article they got the "inspiration."

This troop is sponsored by the Fidelis Guild of the Methodist Church in Speers and Mrs. Scheponik has as her assistant leader, Mrs. Becky Robbins. The girls who turned "old clothing dealers" for a brief period were Joyce Armour, Jonalyn Bello, Bernadette Bezy, Janet Celaschi, Debbie Eberly, Denise Eberly, Betsy Grandy, Rochelle Kellman, Ellen Naylor, Rhonda Palumbo, Pamela Robbins, Lou Ann Scheponik, Cindy Tapper, Luan Trussa and Janice Zanardelli.

Feast of the Apparition of St. Michael the Archangel

Dear Roberta,

You are the first person from the Voelker/Liviskie family who has ever contacted me. I'm sorry, but I don't have any Voelker photos. In compiling the descendants of William Robe, I relied on information that was sent to me from back East. I used the old published Steele family genealogy and some information that Grace Steele (of Ann Arbor, MI) sent me. As far as I know, she did not have any Voelker photos either. There's a photo in the Steele book from about the 1880s of a couple of whom the wife is related to us, but way way back.

BUT...If you want to know about genealogy research or the history of the Robe family, just ask me!

I am always interested in bringing the family information up to date, so I would appreciate information about the Liviskie branch. Where are they living now?

Yours faithfully,
Margaret Robe Summitt

Hi, I saw your information on Ancestry.com. My daughter-in-law is descended from Bertha Voelker through her daughter Irene who married James Liviskie. I am trying to (secretly) work up a genealogy for her as a Christmas gift. Do you possibly have any family pictures that you could share with a scan or two? It would be much appreciated. I can supply some information from the Liviskie branch if you are interested.

Charleroi Lutheran women sew for others

By EMMA JENE LELIK
Society Editor

Quietly and diligently, a dozen or so members of Christ Lutheran Church, Charleroi, have been gathering for the past 15 years to sew for the less fortunate.

They are members of the Christian Service Group, a branch of the Evangelical Lutheran Church Women, and their current mission is to make lap robes for the ill and elderly and tote bags that can easily be attached to a walker or wheel chair enabling the handicapped to carry articles with them.

"Sometimes they need to take something, such as food from the refrigerator, a short distance and, liking on to a walker or wheel chair, they don't have hands available to carry the item," explained Augusta Vezzetti, who is co-chairman of the group, along with Agnes Wickerham. "They put the article conveniently into the tote bag. It hangs on the arm of the wheel chair or the front bar of the walker."

The women have worked on various other needs, including bed pads for the ill, over the years.

"The members of the congregation and friends donate materials and we piece them together with an interlining and backing," Augusta explained.

They use three sewing machines that are kept in the work area of the church. There are two additional machines there, but they are in need of repair.

The women sew from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. every Wednesday, except holidays. Those who show up almost every week include the two chairpersons, Audrey Holesh, Marjorie Brandeburg, Mayme Jacobs, Margaret Miksch, Eva Zippay, Sarah Farley, Ethel Otto, Matilda Porretto, Elaine Binkney and Cheryl Binkney.

"We enjoy visiting with each other during the work sessions and have lunch together," Augusta said. Mostly the women bring their own lunches and sometimes a special casserole or dessert is shared.

They give themselves a month's vacation each summer.

Their labors of love are distributed to such places as the Passavant Health Center at Zelienople, Western Pennsylvania School and Hospital at Canonsburg, the Washington Health Center and to persons who request them. They have been used by college students and others.

Many of the group have been faithful since the very beginning.

"We don't expect any accolades," Mrs. Vezzetti said. "We just work for the joy of doing something for others."

Christmas banquet

Lutheran Church Women of Christ Lutheran Church, Charleroi, held their annual Christmas banquet in Fellowship Hall. Tables were festively decorated with Santas in miniature sleighs surrounded by gaily wrapped presents. The head table was centered with white and red poinsettias with green and red tapers.

Agnes Wickerham was responsible for hand-crafting the table decorations. A Christmas ornament decorated with sprigs of holly was at each place setting as a memento of the party. These were made by Lois Kroenemer and Dorothy Turnbull.

Millie Sotta, president, greeted the 40 members and three guests present. Pastor James M. Robbins gave invocation before the catered dinner.

Marge Brandeburg introduced the Mon River Chapter of Sweet Adelines. This group of local women, under the direction of Bernell Lewis, entertained with barbershop harmony. A special hymn was presented in honor of Pastor Robbins who was celebrating his birthday.

Mary Kornosky was devotional leader. She read from Scripture and a poem entitled "Christmas Guest."

Following a brief business meeting conducted by the president, the miniature sleighs were offered as door prizes. These were won by Tillie Porretto, Millie Sotta, Virginia Robbins, Mayme Jacobs and Gerry Byron. The centerpieces were won by Freda Lytle, Mary Kimmell and Helen Rapp.

In keeping with the holiday theme, gifts from Santa were distributed to Agnes Wickerham, Millie Lettrich, Augusta Vezzetti, Pauline Buckholt, Tillie Porretto, Marge Brandeburg, Lois Bethem, Helen Hanas, Hilda Kirschner, Peg Miksch and Mayme Jacobs.

The evening was concluded with Catherine Balas accompanying at the piano as the women's voices blended in singing carols of the season.

Pittsburgh Rabbi Addresses County Clubs Yesterday

"From Basement to the Penthouse" was the chosen subject of Rabbi Philip Frankel of Temple Emanuel, South Hills, Pittsburgh, when he spoke for the Annual Spring Meeting of the Washington County Federation of Women's Clubs in the George Washington Hotel, Washington yesterday. Mrs. Kenyon Nicholl of Ellsworth Heights presided.

The meeting convened at 3:30 p. m. preceded by registration at 3:00 p. m. A warm and cordial order of the day was read by Mrs. Nicholl and a sincere "Thank You" was extended to all county clubwomen who helped make her tenure as president these past two years, a pleasant and successful one. The usual patriotic devotions were conducted by Mrs. George Gey of Canonsburg, county chairman of Public Affairs, and Mrs. O. C. Taylor, vice president of the Monongahela District and Rabbi Frankel, who spoke very enthusiastically on his announced subject. He stated that Spring is the season associated with housecleaning and a woman is associated with the home. Certainly, he pointed out, there can be no greater task than to houseclean this world-home in which we are living.

"If you think of world society", he continued, "as the penthouse and think of the individual as the basement, then these are where our house cleaning should start, in the basement, with the individual, with the human heart. Perhaps we can think of the family as the first floor; the neighborhood as the second floor and so on to our penthouse. Let's start at the bottom and clean up to the top."

Mrs. D. Roy Clyde spoke briefly of the federation success and achievements that came about during Mrs. Nicholl's term as county president and presented her with a beautiful gift as a token of appreciation from the Board Members. The federation gave her a lovely corsage and the vice-chairman of the Publicity Department, Mrs. James Liviskie, presented her with a huge scrap Book complete to date, of all the federation activities including pictures and programs, state news, etc. The book was compiled by Mrs. Liviskie for Mrs. Nicholl to have as a remembrance of her tenure.

Mrs. Nicholl, retiring president very graciously conducted the installation of new officers in one of the most beautiful and picturesque settings to be recorded in the history of the federation. The room was illuminated by candle light except for the speakers' table which was enhanced by a huge spotlight.

Mrs. James Godwin of Monongahela read the registration report and stated that 166 federation members had registered.

The display of County Scrap Books, under the supervision of Mrs. Liviskie was an outstanding one and the clubs may send their books to the state contest in May.

Pittsburgh Rabbi Addresses County Clubs Yesterday

"From Basement to the Penthouse" was the chosen subject of Rabbi Philip Frankel of Temple Emanuel, South Hills, Pittsburgh, when he spoke for the Annual Spring Meeting of the Washington County Federation of Woman's Clubs in the George Washington Hotel, Washington yesterday. Mrs. Kenyon Nicholl of Ellsworth Heights presided.

The meeting convened at 2:30 p. m. preceded by registration at 2:00 p. m. A warm and cordial order of the day was read by Mrs. Nicholl and a sincere "Thank You" was extended to all county clubwomen who helped make her tenure as president these past two years, a pleasant and successful one. The usual patriotic devotions were conducted by Mrs. George Gey of Canonsburg, county chairman of Public Affairs, and Mrs. O. C. Taylor, vice president of the Monongahela District and Rabbi Frankel, who spoke very enthusiastically on his announced subject. He stated that Spring is the season associated with housecleaning and a woman is associated with the home. Certainly, he pointed out, there can be no greater task than to housecleaning this world-home in which we are living.

"If you think of world society", he continued, "as the penthouse and think of the individual as the basement, then these are where our house cleaning should start, in the basement, with the individual, with the human heart. Perhaps we can think of the family as the first floor; the neighborhood as the second floor and so on to our penthouse. Let's start at the bottom and clean up to the top."

Mrs. D. Roy Clyde spoke briefly of the federation courses and achievements that came about during Mrs. Nicholl's term as county president and presented her with a beautiful gift as a token of appreciation from the Board Members. The federation gave her a lovely corsage and the vice-chairman of the Publicity Department, Mrs. James Liviskie, presented her with a huge scrap Book complete to date, of all the federation activities including pictures and programs, state news, etc. The book was compiled by Mrs. Liviskie for Mrs. Nicholl to have as a remembrance of her tenure.

Mrs. Nicholl, retiring president very graciously conducted the installation of new officers in one of the most beautiful and picturesque settings to be recorded in the history of the federation. The room was illuminated by candle light except for the speakers' table which was enhanced by a huge spotlight.

Mrs. James Godwin of Monongahela read the registration report and stated that 166 federation members had registered.

The display of County Scrap Books, under the supervision of Mrs. Liviskie was an outstanding one and the clubs may send their books to the state contest in May.

Illustrated Food Lecture Given Before Jr. Home And Hospital Club

Program feature for last night's meeting of the Junior Home and Hospital Club was a food lecture illustrated by moving pictures. The speaker was Arch Osborne, local H. J. Heinz company representative. In the movie "Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow," the different stages of canning and preserving food was shown, beginning with the experimental stage in 1795 to the modern methods in the great Heinz kitchens today.

Interesting was the information on the origin of the word "tin can". It was derived from the English word "tin cannister" by abbreviation. The history of the Heinz company from the time of its first small vegetable garden in 1889 at Sharpsburg, Pa., to the gigantic scale of its business today as one of the world's leading food houses, was given by Mr. Osborne and illustrated in the movie.

With the president Mrs. Louis Cober presiding over the meeting in the North Charleroi club room, reports concerning club activities were given by Miss Irene Voelker, chairman of the ways and means committee. Mrs. Samuel Gaskill, Jr., and Mrs. Martha Montgomery.

Dietician Of Local Hospital Addresses North Charleroi Junior Club Last Night

Miss Annabelle Watkins, dietician at the Charleroi-Monessen hospital was presented as guest speaker last night at the first fall meeting of the Junior Home and Hospital club of North Charleroi, and with "Winning the War With Food," as her subject, stressed the important role nutrition is playing in the present world crisis.

Miss Watkins was introduced to the club members by Program chairman of the evening, Irene Liviskie. In her talk, she compared the food of Americans with that of other peoples of the world, revealing that the Poles merely exist on the scant rations they receive, and that the Germans are underfed due to the fact that a great percentage of the food of that country is going to the armed forces. She also spoke of dehydration and other ways of preserving food, and described methods the soldiers at the front use in preparing their eatables. She then announced a "Food Fights For Freedom" campaign, to be held during the month of November.

Guest soloist for the evening was Frank Paterra, who, accompanied by William Lange at the piano, sang four numbers, including "Marie Ilena," "The Right Kind of Love," "Sunday, Monday or Always," and "You'll Never Know."

Following the program, a business session was held, with the president, Miss Gertrude Barnett, presiding. After reports of the various club officers and several chairmen, plans were made for a covered dish dinner to be held sometime during the month of November.

Miss Dolores Gray, now serving in the Women's Army Corps, was accepted as an honorary member of the club, and the club members planned to sell stamps at a local store on alternate Fridays, beginning with October 15.

A social time was then enjoyed by the girls, and lunch was served by hostesses, Irene Liviskie, Mary Elizabeth Alfree, Margaret Cotton, Stella Anderson and Grace Jenion.

TORRID BOOK BASIS OF COMEDY BY LOCAL CLASS

Charleroi Mail 22 Sept 1934

A comedy, entitled, "Welcoming the New Minister," and given by the Pollyanna Class was held last night at 8 o'clock in the basement of Christ Lutheran Church. The cast was composed entirely of women.

Mrs. Little, the main character, played by Mrs. Irma Pieper, discovers that her twin daughters, Lena Little—Freda Voelker; and Mona Little—Marjorie Coulter, have in their possession a rather torrid book, bearing the name of Flaming Youth. Mrs. Little decides to read the book herself before she passes judgment upon its meritable or unmeritable qualities. Finding the story unsuited for the minds of her children she emphatically forbids them reading it.

Then comes the memorable occasion when the new pastor is invited to the home of Mrs. Little. A sort of get-acquainted gathering at which 13 other ladies of the church are present. Gifts are tendered the blushing reverend who, to the astonishment of all assembled in the living room of the Little domicile, turns out to be a woman.

Unfortunately the topic of conversation centers around the latest literary creation, "Flaming Youth." The ladies express their regret that such a story has been written and is evidently being read and enjoyed by a great many avid novel enthusiasts.

As a surprising climax to the comedy, it develops that the new minister, besides being a woman, is also the author of the much discussed book. Astonishment and shame is the outcome of this revealing announcement. The play ends, however, with the certainty that the new minister will have no lack of staunch allies in her new charge.

Following the play, refreshments were served by the ladies of the church while Fred Vandermer played a violin solo, "Nocturne," by Chopin; and Mary Youngman a piano solo, "In A Monastery Garden," by Ketelbey.

Miss Freda Voelker, of North Charleroi, with Miss Iona Willson, of Tonadanda, N. Y., is vacationing this week at a cottage at Geneva-on-the-Lake. They went to the resort this past weekend, accompanied by the Misses Bessie Voelker, Sylvia Russell, Edith Hogan and Mary Biseda, of Charleroi and North Charleroi, who have returned after spending the holiday there.

When some girl from this community goes to Yellowstone Park this summer as the winner of the second prize trip in the Popularity Contest being conducted by The Charleroi Mail she will probably want to know "what makes a geyser geyse."

For, according to Yellowstone Park guides and rangers, this is the inevitable question asked by park visitors. And, it should be added, there are few who come away without the information, if the efficient staff of Yellowstone Rangers can do anything about it.

Incidentally, those same geysers which give rise to the oft-repeated question, are one of the many reasons why Yellowstone is an International attraction and why it has been chosen by this newspaper as the destination of the winning trip.

Probably no other feature of the park is looked forward to with greater curiosity and interest by tourists than are the geysers and hot springs. There are 4,000 hot springs, of which 46 are said to possess healing properties.

Old Faithful is the most famous of the geysers but Giant is the largest. The reason Old Faithful is better known is because it erupts once an hour and everybody who visits the park is sure to see it, while Giant and many others erupt only occasionally and are witnessed by fewer people.

Old Faithful will be only one of the many wonders viewed by the winner. She will enter Yellowstone via Gardiner Gateway and the first major spectacle in that vicinity will be the Mammoth Hot Springs. From there she will proceed to Norris Geyser Basin, Old Faithful, Yellowstone Lake, and the Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone. Her departure from the park will probably lead across the picturesque and fantastic Buffalo Bill country which is traversed by only one highway, the amazing Cody Road. Its terminal is Cody, Wyoming, destination of through sleepers on the North Coast Limited, the train which will carry the Popularity Contest queen.

Reunion Attracts 1931 Class Members From Near and Far

With practically as much interest and enthusiasm that marked their graduation from Charleroi High School twenty-two years ago, local and out-of-town members of the class of 1931 held their first reunion last Saturday night, June 6, in the Elks Club. The affair, beautifully appointed throughout with the class colors of silver and green, was the climax of many, many weeks of planning and was a gala affair; and for many of the eighty class members, their husbands and guests who attended, it was a joyful reunion for the first time since graduation.

Years were rolled back as reminiscing commenced from the arrival hour of six until seven and continued throughout the evening until reluctant goodnights were exchanged. One of the first features of the program was the assembly of class members for a photograph.

The reunion banquet was served in the main ballroom of the Elks Club. June roses predominated in the table and room decorations Corsages of green-tinted carnations tied with silver ribbon were presented to the ladies and the men wore the same flower as boutonnieres. Further carrying out the class colors of green and silver were the souvenir programs which listed all of the officers and calss members (118), the entertainment features and reunion officers and committee members. The reunion committee included. George Youngman, general chairman; Mrs. Magdalene Huber Hornack and Mrs. Eleanor Robb George co-secretaries; Arthur LeClair, treasurer; Mrs. Betty Miksch Wiehl, class custodian; and general committee members Mrs. Gertrude Trenton Baker, Mrs. Elizabeth Fiedler DeStefon, Mrs. Jean Thornburg Simonin, Mrs. Rose Melenyzer Supko, Mrs. Eleanor Weaver Behrendt, Lawrence Wentzel, Miss Alma Sneed, Miss Edith Hogan, Mrs. Minnie Bailey Gysegem, Mrs. Bessie Voelker Elias, Kenneth Wilson and Harrison Maund.

Mrs. Minnie Bailey Gysegem, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Freda Bernowski Majoros, sang words of grace after which a toast to the class of 1931 was led by chairman and toastmaster George Youngman. The King's Daughters of Christ Lutheran church met in the home of Miss Bessie Voelker, 514 Fourth Street, North Charleroi, for their annual Halloween party last night.

An unique plan of masking was carried out. Each girl brought a costume wrapped in colored comic pages of a newspaper. The Voelker home was appropriately and gaily decorated in Halloween colors, and after members and their guests had all assembled, a wrapped costume was handed to each one. As one girl would don her costume, the next girl would don her costume, the next girl anxiously awaited her turn to see what amusing costume her package contained.

Mrs. Meade Rugh, teacher of the class, contributed to the enjoyment of the evening by telling a very exciting ghost story. Miss Edna Mahoney and Miss Bessie Voelker were in charge of the games and Halloween stunts, after which refreshments were served.

The class will hold its regular business meeting the last Friday of November, when plans will be made for future meetings.

Love Finds A Way Despite Road Mishap

Love will find a way.

Love laughed at a little thing like a fractured leg, when Jane Tiernan, victim of an automobile accident, was married to Sergeant Paul Metz, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Metz of Fairchance. The ceremony was performed Thursday, November 11, in Montgomery County General Hospital, Washington.

Originally scheduled for the chapel at Fort Meade, Md., the 24-year-old bride-to-be was driving from her home in Fayette City with her maid of honor, Caroline Voelker, also of Fayette City. At 7 o'clock last Thursday morning near Gaithersburg, Md., the car crashed into a tree. Both girls were taken to the hospital.

Lying in bed with a fractured leg, bruises about the eyes and an enormous swelling on her forehead, the young bride-to-be was determined the marriage would be held. Instead of her trim little wedding suit, she wore a peach-colored satin bed ensemble and a corsage of talisman roses. The maid of honor wore a similar outfit.

Guests at the wedding ceremony included the bride's mother, Mrs. Albert Tiernan, of Fayette City and Mrs. Harold Barclay of Washington. Mr. Barclay served as best man. The Rev. Frank Tyer, pastor of a Methodist church, performed the ceremony.

The wedding dinner and honeymoon were to have been in the Willard Hotel, where the bride and groom met at a dance exactly five years ago.

Mrs. Metz is employed as ordnance inspector at the Paragon Manufacturing company, Derry.

Sgt. Metz enlisted in the United States Army in January, 1938, shortly after his graduation from Georges Township High school. He had been granted a seven-day furlough for his wedding.

The bridegroom's mother and brother, Carl, had expected to be guests at the wedding but returned home before reaching their destination, when notified of the accident.

At the hospital, the Voelker girl, a high school student, said:

"I was in the front car.

"I don't know much about it. But it was unexpected and I was thrown against the seat in front. There wasn't much confusion, just the quick shake. My head was hurt. I wasn't knocked out."

Miss Voelker ate a good lunch and was believed not seriously hurt.

The accident occurred about 8:15 and involved two local trippers, one hauling high school students. The lead car had stopped for the Maple View automatic signal and the rear car, moving thru a record fog, struck it.

Most of the injured were standing passengers who were thrown against stanchions and hand-grips.

Charleroi office of Pittsburgh Railways immediately sent men to the scene and the injured were taken to a doctor's office for treatment and examination. Later Supt. John J. Henrion drove two children from the rear car to their school rooms after they had been examined.

The car was not traveling excessively due to the pea-soup fog, worst of the season, it was declared.

Charleroi ambulance was sent to the scene by Charleroi barn officials, but the injured had been removed.

Five of the injured were examined by a local physician.

email from Kathy Endres 11 Apr 2000: Dear Margaret:
I told you that my aunt had some more information about Sophrona Steele & Jacob Henry Newman. I am, however, not 100% sure that these were their descendants. She has listed ten children for the couple:
1) Sarah G. Newman (m. W.E. Ambers, no children)
2) Samuel R. Newman (d. 28 Sept. 1916, m. Dora Robison)
3) Mary Newman (m. Kelly Robison)
4) Ellen V. Newman (m. Worthington Wilson)
5) Ida B. Newman (m. Frank E. Gapen)
6) Howard J. Newman (d. 22 June 1952, m. Mary Sonneck)
7) Emma Newman (m. Carl DuBois) - Morgantown, WV
8) Isae E. Newman (m. Charles J. Luckey) - Morgantown, WV
9) Ernest E. Newman (m. Alice Palmer)
10) Fannie Lee (died in infancy)

I also have a list of their children and their children's children. So, I need to add these to my GEDCOM, which by the way I have downloaded to Rootsweb. I also found my g-grandmother's line on Rootsweb. What a goldmine.
It was just all right there even down to my father. I couldn't believe it.

Before I am sure that these are the descendants of Jacob and Sophrona, I want to check some records. I ordered some microfilms from the LDS so I'll check these out.

Notice the Robison's that the Newman's married. I bet their from the same family. I notice you write Robinson/Robison - are you unsure of the spelling?

Mary & Kelly Robison had seven children: Clyde, Mildred, Harold, Madonna, Norma, Dorothy, & Edith (all Robison). Let me know if any of these names ring a bell.

10 June 2000 received from Grace in Livonia MI photocopies of A Genealogy of the Descendants of James Steele and his Wife Mary, Late of Clinton District, Monongalia County, Virginia (Now West Virginia), For the Entertainment and Instruction of the Family and for Handy Reference, compiled by Donley M. Steele, a great-great grandson, 1919. Children of Jacob and Sophronia (thus spelled in the book) are taken from this source. The couple was married on Toms Run, in the same house in which Sophronia was born. She was called by death very suddenly on Nov. 17th, 1911, while visiting with her daughter, Mrs. W.E. Ambers at Clarksburg, W. Va. The mortal remains of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob H. Newman lie buried side by side in Mt. Union Cemetery near their old home place. They were both faithful and consistent members of the M.E. Church. Mr. Newman was politically Republican and served as inspector of elections in his district for six consecutive years, 1866-1871. He had been mail carrier from Morgantown to Stewartstown for some years and was for a long time the sexton of Mt. Union cemetery.

William Robe's Descendants printed 15 Jan 2001 by Margaret Robe Summitt. AS WITH ANY GENEALOGY, THERE ARE BOUND TO BE MISTAKES HERE. PLEASE FORGIVE!

!Birth: calculated from age 84 at death given in Robe Family History recorded by his great-granddaughter Sarah Robe (David Robe's granddaughter) in the "Descendants of Mary Elizabeth Currey Barker and John Baldwin," comp. by Carey Ross Alexander, 94 Grange Hall Road, Dayton, OH 45430 (513) 426-3614. Salt Lake FHLC film #1035723, item 3. For brevity's sake I refer to this as the Currey-Barker-Baldwin Genealogy. Sarah Robe begins thus: "Our Great-Grandparents William and Sarah Robe were of Scotch descent. He was educated for a Presbyterian minister, but in consequence of an impediment in his speech he never preached. He lived many years near Morgantown, Virginia, where he was a ruling elder in the Morgantown church for many years. He lived to be 84 years old. In his old days he was very deaf. I have heard it said, that he would go up into the pulpit and stand close to the preacher so he could hear him. He died about the year 1801 or 2. His wife died one year later. He lived many years at Morgantown, Va., where he raised his family. I believe there were seven children, five boys and two girls."

William Robe was compensated 2 pounds, 10 shillings and threepence for salt he supplied to troops in Lord Dunmore's War. Claim recorded Tuesday 19 September 1775.
http://lvaimage.lib.va.us/Microfilm/DW/001/00153.tif

In the 1790 Census for Monongalia County, Wm. Robe (7 white persons) is enumerated between James Mahon and Cornelious King.

1800 (?)William Robe, Sr., yeoman, appeared on a list of persons indicted by the Commonwealth of Virginia for not voting for some person for representatives for Monongalia County and a Senator for the district to the General Assembly (county court records envelope 114c). A yeoman is a farmer who works the land with animals hitched to a yoke.

IGI lists two William Robes b Scotland 1719: William Robe christened 15 Mar 1719 Oathlaw, Angus, Scotland, son of Andrew Robe. Blair married James Robe, Pitsligo, Aberdeen. See http://people.ne.mediaone.net/jablair/M_Names/Marry-M.htm.

!Marriage: Not sure if wife's maiden surname was Blair; this was a conjecture of Campsa Robe Eagleson and why she thought so is unknown (1938).

!Death: Death is described in Currey-Barker-Baldwin genealogy as follows: "I have heard it said that great-grandfather (William Robe) was found dead with a nail drove through his temple. A quote from Judges 4 Chapter & 21st verse: Then Jael Heber's wife took a nail of the tent, and took an hammer in her hand, and went softly unto him, and smote the nail into his temples, and fastened it into the ground: for he was fast asleep and weary. So he died." Emma Eliza Laughlin notes from a trip to Monongalia Co. in 1938: "All the old Robe family were buried on the Robe farm about three miles back from Uffington, W. Va. Present owner, J.A. Bucy, Woodland Dairy, Uffington, W. Va."

!Estate: William Robe, Sr. left a will dated 3 March 1801 in Monongalia Co., VA; proved April 1803. In the name of God, Amen, I, William Robe, of Monongalia County and state of Virginia, being weak of body and of perfect mind and memory, acknowledging and believing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do, this third day of March in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and one, make and publish this my last will and testament, in the way and manner following, that is to say-- First and principally I recommend my soul to God who gave it and my body to the earth to be decently buried at the discretion of my executors, and as to my worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me, I will and bequeath in the following manner: First, I will and bequeath unto Sarah my beloved wife all that part of the tract of land whereon I now live that lies west of Surat's run and whereon a certain Marsh Duvall now lives to the only use and benefit of her my said wife during her natural life with full power to dispose of it as she may think proper at her death. I also will and bequeath to my said wife the undisturbed use of the lower room in my new building on the said tract of land during her natural life, also her choice of two of my beds and furniture suitable thereto together with as much of my household furniture as she chooses. Also one horse and two cows such as she may choose out of my stock, which horse and cows I hereby will and direct my son Josiah to support with provender &c, and also to find her my said wife in a sufficiency of good suitable provisions and also as sufficiency of fire wood cut and laid at her door during the run of her natural life and also pay her my said wife fifty pounds at any time when she demands it of my said son Josiah. Secondly, I will and bequeath to my two sons David and Robert all my other lands (exclusive of the tract of land and plantation whereon I now live and a small survey of fifteen acres adjoining thereto) to be equally divided between them my said two sons David and Robert according to quantity and quality reserving to my said son Robert in said division that part of my said land whereon he now lives and my said son David is to have no allowance in said division for any improvement made by my son Robert where he my said son Robert now lives. Thirdly, I will and bequeath to my said son David the one half of all the grain now in my stockyard, he my said son David to assist in threshing and cleaning the same. Fourthly, I will and bequeath to my son Josiah all that tract of land and plantation whereon I now live except that part of it herein before bequeathed to my wife together with the small survey of fifteen acres before mentioned. Also that part of said tract herein before bequeathed to my said wife provided she dies intestate together with all my stock of horses cattle sheep and hogs and all my household furniture goods and chattels farming utensils whatsoever that is not herein before bequeathed. Fifthly, I will and bequeath to my two daughters Mary Stuart and Sarah Sutton each a Bibel to be purchased by my executors out of my personal estate and delivered to them respectively at a convenient time by my said executors and I do hereby appoint my said sons Robert and Josiah executors of this my last will and testament hereby revoking all former will or wills by me heretofore made and hereby acknowledging this and this only to be my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this third day of March as aforesaid 1801. Signed sealed and acknowledged by testator in the presence of us who are subscribing witnesses thereto. William Robe (seal), William McClerry, Alex'r Hawthorne, Ezekiel Chaney. At a court held for Monongalia County, April term 1803, the last will and testament of William Robe was produced in court and proved by the oaths of the subscribing witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded. Teste: J. Evans, C. M. C.

!Emigration: according to the biography of Rev. Robert Robe by Hermon Linn Robe, William Robe and James Frame came to America from Scotland about 1750. The document seems to imply that they came together.

Patricia Lee Hilscher (granddaughter of Truitt Kendall Robe) has 4 sterling silver spoons said to have been passed down in the Robe family since they left Scotland. 2 soup spoons and 2 teaspoons. These are said to have been melted down from a silver tray that was brought over with them, because they needed the utensils to eat with more than they needed the tray (phone conversation 21 Dec 1999).

Thurlow Richard Robe told Margaret Robe (later Summitt) that when the Robe family came over from Scotland, they destroyed the family records, thinking that they were making a complete break with the past. This is a tradition that Thurlow "Dick" heard from relatives.

- Name: Sarah BLAIR
- Surname: Blair
- Given Name: Sarah
- Sex: F
- Death: 26 Feb 1804 in Clinton District, Monongalia, Virginia
- Reference Number: 33
- _UID: 4BB2334CB4CCA640BEA655B217B0C5D4AD70
- Note:

!Birth: has to be younger than her husband. NOTE: the surname BLAIR was a conjecture of Campsa Robe Eagleson. She wrote on a 1938 letter to Emma Eliza Laughlin that she thought it might have been BLAIR and thought she could check, but I have no evidence whether she confirmed this. It is conjecture upon conjecture of mine that Sarah, if born a BLAIR, might have been a relative of the Rev. Samuel Blair who founded Fagg's Manor Classical Academy, a seminary for Presbyterian ministers at New Londonderry, PA in 1740. This is based on the family tradition as related by Sarah Robe in the Currey-Barker-Baldwin history that William Robe studied for the Presbyterian ministry. But I have no record of where or when he did this. Samuel Blair was b in Ireland in 1712, and was educated under William Tennant at the Log College at Neshamineh, PA, then preached at Middletown and Shrewsbury, NJ in 1733. His brother John Blair was ordained in Dec 1742 pastor of Middle Spring, Big Spring and Rocky Spring congregations in Cumberland Co., PA. He made two visits to Virginia, the last in 1746 (Presbyterian Encyclopedia, 1884).

!Marriage:

!Death: 26 Feb 1804. Will dated 22 Jan 1804; recorded April 1804. Text of will, filed in Monongalia Co., VA: I, Sarah Robe {much the same as the first part of William Robe's will}. First--I will and bequeath to my two daughters and two sons. To Mary Stewart ten dollars and a suit of mourning. To Sarah Sutton ten dollars and to David and Robert each ten dollars. Secondly, I bequeath to my grand-daughter Sarah Stewart one cow. Thirdly, I bequeath to my grand-daughter Sarah Robe one woman's saddle. Fourthly, I bequeath to my grand-daughter Nancy Stewart twenty dollars in money together with one feather bed and furniture, one cow, three sheep and all my clothing. Fifthly, I bequeath to my son Josiah Robe all my estate real and personal that is not before bequeathed. And I do nominate and appoint my said son Josiah executor, etc. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this twenty-second day of January as aforesaid 1804. This is noted here for future research into Blair families of the Monongalia County area. No proof that this William is a brother or other relative of Sarah.
226. William Blair Major (son of Abraham Blair, b. in Scotland, d. in New York). such is reported on the webpage of Sharon Baker Burress, members.aol.com/bookwyrmb/pafg01/pafc07.htm

BIOGRAPHY: According to Biographical and Portrait Cyclopedia of Monongalia, Marion and Taylor Counties of WV, published in 1895 by Rush, West, & Co of Philadelphia, PA, William Blair was captured by theTories in the commencement of the Revolution and, after being released, enlisted and served under Washington as a drum-major. He was the first in the family to learn the stone cutting craft which he learned after the Rev. War when he settled in PA.
MIGRATION Moved to Waynesburg, PA after the close of the Revolutionary War (from New York?).
Received 11/12/99 online RE William Blair of the Revolutionary War: The best description I have of him was writtem by Mrs. W. E. Cooper, and that was published in the History Of St. Clair County Illinois, Volume 1, 1988, item F73.

In that article William Blair and his son George are said to have come to Illinois in 1796. In the same article a letter written by a great, great grandson is quoted, and states that William had relatives in Scotland, that he was with General Washington in the Revolutionary War, and that he was "in the battle of the Deleware River, crossing the river at night." I believe Mrs. Cooper to be an excellent researcher and I have numerous copies of land deeds, marriage records, etc. she unearthed in her research. Unfortunately the trail ends in Illinois. She is also a distant cousin.

I would greatly appreciate any information you might share that would aid me in tracing this man. I do not know if he and your William Balir are related, but I'd like to find out.

Respectfully,

Bill W. Blair

ROBERT ROBE

Robert Robe (1F), also known as Robert Robe, Sr., was the only surviving son of William Robe, Sr. to remain in Monongalia County, Va. Of him Sarah Shell Robe, great-granddaughter of WIlliam, says "I will now speak of Robert. He was an excellent good man that was upright in all his dealings with man, one that loved God and his church. He went to church as long as he was able to ride horseback. He was a ruling elder in the Morgantown, Va. church for 45 years. He died July 10, 1842 at 75 years of age" (from the Robe Family History in the "Descendants of Mary Elizabeth Currey Barker and John Baldwin," Salt Lake film 1035723, item 3). Birth year calculated from age 75 at death, which means he would have been born about 1767, and hence was probably closest in age to William Sr.'s youngest son, his brother Josiah, who was born in 1768.

!Marriage: collected by Emma Eliza Laughlin, from a record written on the back of a Confession of Faith owned by Mrs. C.V. Butler of Morgantown, W. Va. From a letter dated July 12, 1939, from Emma Eliza Laughlin of Barnesville, Ohio, to Campsa Robe Eagleson of Circleville, Ohio: "Over a year ago I was in Morgantown, W. Va., where the Robes came from and found a descendant of one of old Josiah's brothers. She let me copy some records from an old confession of faith, but they were not of our line." This descendant was Mrs. C. V. Butler, since in Emma's handwriting I (Margaret Robe Summitt) have a copy of Robert Robe's children's births, copied, as Emma says, "from the back of a Confession of Faith belonging to Mrs. C. V. Butler of 942 University Ave., Morgantown, W. Va." A 1935 city directory for Morgantown lists a Wilber L. Robe at this address. Wilber L. Robe was the brother of Carrie V. Robe, and I think she is this Mrs. C. V. Butler. A Confession of Faith was similar to a Presbyterian catechism.

A deed of bargain and sale from Henry Tucker and Mary his wife to Robert Robe for 56 acres of land was produced in open court, acknowledged and ordered to be recorded on 14 October 1800 (Monongalia County Court Minute Book vol. 9, 1800-1803, p. 51 in typescript, 41 in original).

Gravestones of two of Robert and Malinda Steele's children: Ray and Roa Lee. Oddly enough, Roa Lee married Louie Hazel Richard and yet did not have his surname on their stone. Perhaps it was on the reverse side of the stone.

Robert and Malinda Jones Steele are direct ancestors of Heather Liviskie Hofmann

RAYMOND CHARGES COWARDICE

Sole Survivor of Jacobs Creek Family Accuses Brother-in-Law

JACOBS CREEK July 20—John Raymond sole survivor of his family which was swept away by the cloudburst Wednesday evening declared yesterday that the cowardice of his brother in law prevented the rescue of those nearest and dearest to him Raymond asserted that Livinski his brother in law caught him about the legs and implored aid when the water first rushed into the home He was shaken off said Raymond but after the family was taken to the top of the house Livinski again caught hold of his legs and refused to release him

When the home was torn to pieces in a collision with a tree Raymond lost sight of his family He caught hold of a log a moment later and said he saw Livinski clinging to another log A big wave came hurling Livinski high into the air Then he disappeared The wave washed Raymond against a tree and he caught hold of a limb but it gave way

When he dropped Raymond fell into an eddy and was washed to the side of the stream

Roberta,

Just thought I would tell you that I mailed the pictures this afternoon. They said you should have them by Saturday.

I was reading back over some of your emails that I saved and I am still confused about how we are connected.

Is it that the daughter of James Liviskie, Jr. (my cousin) is married to your son? I'm just trying to get this straight in my mind.

I know for a fact that Andrew Liviskie was Roman Catholic as were all his brothers and sisters. The victims of the flood are all buried in the Roman Catholic cemetary in Smithton. At that time the Catholic Church would not permit anyone who was not baptised and confirmed as Roman Catholic be buried in "sacred ground". They are there for sure so I am pretty sure they were all Catholic.

I think I know where the Jewish thing came from. My mother told me that my grandmother and grandfather Liviskie lived with a Jewish gentleman who came from Germany prior to WWII. He had no living relatives here and when he died, he left everything to them. In fact, I have some of the "Jewish" cut glass that my grandmother had inherited.

I have to say that I'm not surprised about James Liviskie, Jr. being a little strange. I told you, their family never mingled much with us. His mother was really wierd. She was a member of the DAR and I think she was embarassed by the fact that her husband's family were such recent immigrants.

I am almost positive that my grandfather, Andrew Liviskie, was born in Poland. Exactly where, I'm not sure. My mother said that during and after WWII her father corresponded with family in Poland. I believe he may have even sent them money. The picture I sent you of Andrew Liviskie as a young man is supposedly was taken shortly after he came to this country. He was only 65 when he died, so I don't see how that was possible. My mother is convinced that he lied to the authorities about being born in this country because he and his family were here illegally and he was afraid of being deported. This could be another reason why he never had a bank account or a driver's license. He kept all his money in a huge safe in their house.

My mother told me that when the stock market crashed in 1929, her father was the only one in the whole town of Fayette City who had any money. Supposedly, he bought up property when it went up for taxes and let the people who formerly owned it live in it rent free. When they got back on their feet financially, he let them buy it back for what he had paid for it as long as they paid him in cash. She also told me that she and her sister and mother baked bread every week and the family went at night putting it outside people's doors who had nothing to eat. When my grandfather died, there were red roses everywhere from grateful people. I was only 5 but to this day I remember seeing him laying in a gray suit in a coffin surrounded by huge bouquets of red roses. As I remember it, I can almost smell the roses it is that vivid a memory. It had to be some specticle if it is that embedded in the memory of a then 5 year old. It is especially significant because it is one of the very few childhood memories that I have.

If you don't want to hear this stuff, just let me know. I've been writing stories about my family for years, trying to put down stories I've been told as I remember them. They may be somewhat fictionalized because it has been many years since I've heard them. If you like, I will prode my mother's memory with some of these stories and check them for accuracy.

To change the subject, I've been looking for my great-grandfather on my Dad's side. His name was either Aldorse Bailey or Aldorse DuBaillee. He was a barber in Perryopolis, PA. The only thing I can find is a few census records and his obituary. I can't find any other records of him. He was my grandfather's father. My grandfather was William Montgomery Bailey and he was married to Florence Hazel Lynn.

I would appreciate it if you could use your resources to try to find more about him.

Mrs. Hofman:

I spoke with Mom on the phone this evening and she gave be a little information that you may or may not have.

She told me that her mother and dad (Sylvia and Andrew) had three babies before James who did as infants. There were two girls: one name Gertrude and Mom couldn't remember the other. She said the third was a baby boy they never named because he didn't live but a few hours. They are all three buried in unmarked graves in the same cemetary and on the same plot as my grandparents. Mom said the cemetary where Andrew and Sylvia and many of the other Rhodes family members are buried is called the Red Brick Cemetary and the family who owned it or ran it were called Hough.

She did tell me something interesting about her Uncle Russell Rhodes and her Uncle Walter Rhodes. Russell was married to a lady by the name of Kate. Kate had a daughter whose name was Myrtle and she married Uncle Walter. Walter is the one who died in Somerset Hospital. For years he was committed to that mental institution. I remember going to visit him there as a kid.

Mom said that Andrew had a sister named Laura who lived in Donora, PA. Mom said she didn't speak any English and doesn't remember what ever happened to her or her family.

She said that her Aunt Ora was married to her first husband when she had two children. One was a girl she couldn't remember the name and the other was a boy they called Bud.

John and Suzanna Moniac (Sylvia's sister) had three children. Bernise, Myrtle and Sonny. Mom said Sonny and Myrtle are both deceased; but, she talks to Bernise nearly every week.

She also said that she isn't sure of the name of the Catholic Cemetary in Smithton. She is planning to go there this summer and she will check the tombstone and find the name of the cemetary for you.

She also said that if you had specific questions, to email them to me and if she remembered, she would answer them. As I talked with her, I could jog her memory and she would go off on a tangent. She said that my cousin, Enoch James Eley, Jr. has a daughter named Janet Rae and my cousin, Joyce gave the family photo album to her. She lives in New Jersey. She is planning to come to visit my mother with the album to get Mom to tell her who the people in the pictures are. Mom said she would try to get copies of the pictures for me so that I could share them with you.

So, . . . if you have any questions, please feel free to send them my way. I will be happy to ask my mother. I an thinking about making a trip to PA in the fall to collect some things from my mother's house and bring her to Texas for the winter. I will try to copy some of the pages from the family Bible that have dates of birth and death for some of the relatives. The information about the children of Sylvia and Andrew was torn from the Bible by Uncle Jim Liviskie and his daughter told my mother she has no intention of giving them back to my mother. She promised to make copies; but, never has. I doubt we will ever see those pages again. It is a shame that someone would deface a historical document like that and refuse to give stolen material back to its rightful owner. Besides, what is she going to do with it? She and her brother got some of the nicest pieces of my grandmother's furniture from their father. Besides, they never really had anything to do with us. Oh well, that was then and this is now. It would be nice to at least have the information from those pages to verify information.

I hope I've given you a little more than you had. As soon as our church is back to normal (whatever that is) I will try to go through our cedar chest and see if I have more pictures of the family. I think I have my Aunt Wilma's wedding picture somewhere. I'll continue to look if you like.

ANDREW LIVISKIE

Knocked Into River From Ferry

Alleged to have been knocked into the water from the ferry on which he was a passenger, James Edward Miller, 51, 139 Main street, Fayette City, died by drowning in the Monongahela River at Allenport last night at 10:45 o'clock.

Eye witnesses reported that Miller was knocked into the water about fifteen feet from the shore by an automobile which was being ferried across the river. The auto driver had started up the motor, preparatory to driving up the bank, when the vehicle suddenly jerged forward, hitting Miller, they said.

According to Ferry Operator Andy Liviskie, of Fayette City, the auto was nearly off the flat, the front wheels being only about six inches from the edge of the water when it was finally stopped.

Miller was on his way to work at the Allenport plant of the Pittsburgh Steel Company when the accident occurred. Two other millworkers, George Welsh and Charles Huska, both of Fayette City, were eye witnesses to the tragedy.

According to reports, Welsh and Huska advised the frightened motorist to remain where he was, and they mentally noted his license number. As soon as the flat reached shore, however, the motorist sped off. His license number has been turned over to the State Police, and an investigation is under way.

Operator Liviskie and the two men hurriedly grabbed a skiff, but when they reached the spot, Miller had vanished below the surface of the water.

Allenport firemen recovered Miller's body at 11:45 o'clock, and Charleroi firemen applied a resusciator in a vain attempt to revive him. He was pronounced dead at midnight by Deputy Coroner Ruth Eckert, of Roscoe.

Miller is survived by his wife, Viola; four daughters, Mrs. Marion Gills, Fayette City, and Pearl, Margaret, and Betty, at home; and one son, James, Jr.

Charleroi Mail 23 June 1945

FAYETTE CITY—A theatre party of five narrowly escaped drowning in the Monongahela River when their four-door sedan lodged in the water at the Fayette City wharf as it is said the driver attempted to drive onto the ferry flat. Occupants of the car were forced to wade ashore, the car having been brought to a stop in the icy water which they found to be waiste deep as they opened the doors and stepped out.

Those comprising the party, all attired for evening, were a young man called Chuck and James McNeil, both from Charleroi; Jean Lettori and a Mr. Lavern, both of Monessen and Martha Mollard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hollard, of Fairhope.

The young ladies retired to the confectionery store of Charles Kuhns in Main Street to dry their drenched clothing and to get warm following their experience in wading in the cold water of the river while the young men joined them later after having made arrangements to have the car pulled from the river.

Robert Livingstone of Allenport was to be included in the party and his friends were on their way from Fayette City to his home when the accident occurred which marred the evening for the young folks, whose wearing apparel was ruined, according to a statement made by a member of the party.

Charleroi Mail Dec 15, 1942

Miss Mollard stated that Chuck was driving the car and when he went to drive onto the ferry flat the front wheels were on the apron of the flat when it pulled out. The driver put the car in reverse gear but it was too late to get back on shore before the car was dragged into the river.

Andy Liviskie, of Allenport, on duty at the ferry at the time of the accident stated that he had seen the car drive onto the flat. That the car lights indicated it had been driven up the apron and onto the flat and then the lights were turned out. He then took the ordinary precaution to flash the big flood light on the flat to make sure the car was on board and that everything was ready for the trip to the Allenpart shore.

Liviskie stated that the driver had apparently decided to back off the flat after he had pulled on and was a little too late to get his front wheels entirely clear and was thus dragged into the river a short distance.

Christmas dinner for Fayette City Woman's Club

The club center, enhanced by trees, colored lights, glowing candles, unusual wreaths, holly and white-feathered birds nestled in beds of greenery, welcomed the members and guests of the Fayette City Woman's Club to the annual holiday party and dinner.

Gladys Davis, president, hosted the festivities and offered the invocation.

Miss Davis opened a short club session with the reading of "The Legend of the Poinsettia." Martha Troth reported on a successful response to the club's Christmas project for the Somerset Home patrons.

The traditional trek to the tree, "trimmed with handcrafted mementos for each member," was done to the accompaniment of lively piano tunes by Elsie Gaffney. Donations made at the tree are used by the club's welfare fund in support of various projects. Instead of a gift-exchange among members, donations are exchanged for a trimming. This year's trimmings, miniature cuckoo clocks, were made by Wilma Eley, Ethel Hicks and Emilyn Johnson. Table decorations and individual favors, angels and manger scene shadow boxes were made by Miss Davis.

Entertainment for the evening was provided by a singing group composed of Eugene and Patty Lint, Kevin Logan and Michael Shawnee and Lyn Rowan. All are members of the Scottdale Choral Society. They performed individually as a quartette and a group in presenting seasonal songs in a variety of moods.

Mr. Lint served as director, pianist, vocalist and monologist during the program. Group selections were interspersed with patter and verse.

Singing of ecarols and sharing of Christmas greetings concluded the festivities. The committee in charge of this holiday event included Ann Figel, Kay Tola, Emma Williams and Rose Yusko.

The first program of 1984, in January, will feature J. Harold Arnold as speaker.

The Gaither Baileys are co-pastors

By ISADELLE HURLEY

There are two ordained ministers in the Gaither E. Bailey family after his ordination on April 12 in the Fayette City United Presbyterian Church.

When the time came during the service for the laying on of hands by all ordained ministers and elders, one of the persons participating was his wife, the Rev. Helen Bailey, who is also an ordained Presbyterian minister.

The Rev. Gaither E. Bailey and the Rev. Helen Bailey are back in their home in Silex, Mo., where they are co-pastors of North Lincoln Westminster Parish which includes four churches, Auburn, Silex, Whiteside and Troy with a membership of about 300 persons.

On the Presbytery of Redstone Commission for Mr. Bailey's ordination were the Rev. Graeme Sieber, moderator of the Presbytery and pastor of the East Liberty Presbyterian Church of Vanderbilt; the Rev. Howard Brown, pastor Grace Chapel and McClellandtown Churches, McClellandtown; the Rev. Fred Gnatuk, pastor of Little Redstone and Fayette City Churches; the Rev. Leslie Papp, pastor of St. Paul's United Presbyterian Church of Mentor, Ohio; Mrs. Wilma Eley, ruling elder of Fayette City Church and James Swartz, ruling elder of Little Redstone Church

Rev. Brown gave the Call to Worship and Mrs. Eley, aunt of Mr. Bailey the Call to Confession, and the Assurance of Pardon.

Rev. Papp, who had scripture, prayer and preached the sermon, was formerly pastor of the Fayette City Church and was ordained there in 1961.

After Rev. Papp read the Prayer of Consecration and the ordination hymn was sung, Elder Swartz led in "A Creed in the Words of St. John."

Rev. Gnatuk brought greetings from the congregation, led responsive reading and gave the charge to the newly ordained minister.

Mrs. Eley presented Mr. Bailey for ordination, which was conducted by Rev. Sieber. To the mother of the ordinand, Mrs. Thurman (Ethel) Bailey went the honor of placing his stoll. His father was also present for the ceremony

Rev. Bailey asked the benediction, and he was then honored at a reception in the church educational building. There was singing by the church choir and the congregation during the service

Gaither Bailey's parents, Mr. and Mrs Thurman Bailey, live in Fayette City. In 1965 he was graduated from Bellmar High School, where he was active in the band and in vocal groups. He was also active in choirs in several Valley churches. In 1969 he received his bachelor degree from Waynesburg College in secondary education and French. He then entered Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary in Louisville, Ky., to prepare for the ministry.

The Rev. Gaither E. Bailey and the Rev. Helen P. Bailey

Here he met Helen Poplstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Poplstein of Maple Heights, Cleveland, Ohio. She graduated from Maple Heights High School in 1965 and earned her degree at Cleveland State University in 1969.

As seminary freshmen, Gaither and Helen, became friends, then dated and in their second year they were married. The third year saw them prepare for graduation and embarkation on a career of service to the Lord

"We were hoping for a rural parish," the newly - ordained minister said "It seems as though they are really the ones who need help and not too many ministers want to work in the country areas," he continued.

Mrs Bailey said·

"We live in a town with a population of about 306, and according to some of our visitors the sidewalks are taken in much before 9 p m., but we have lots to do."

The Baileys have particularly active youth groups, who find it most enjoyable to have both a lady and a man for ministers.

The Baileys mean exactly what "co-pastors" indicate. They share the duties. Two Sundays monthly the Rev. Gaither Bailey preaches in two of the churches, and the Rev. Helen Bailey in the other two. Then they switch around and both are thoroughly acquainted with members of all four churches.

"We admit there is a little curiosity about us, since as far as we know we are the only husband and wife co-pastors in the Presbyterian Church of the United States," observed Gaither Bailey, who said that they serve in the Union Presbytery in Missouri and enjoy being "the first."

But then "the first" is not unusual for Helen Bailey, who passed all requirements for ordination in one semester and is the first woman to be ordained by a woman moderator. Mrs. Bailey was ordained July 30, 1972, in the Maple Heights Presbyterian Church, Cleveland.

Perhaps "the first" of which the Rev. Gaither and the Rev Helen Bailey are the most proud is the fact that she ordained the first black elder in the Troy Church, which is the only integrated parish in Lincoln County.

Her husband remarked proudly:

"And they integrated themselves Can you imagine an old church building with a slave balcony now having a black elder and many black members in the congregation?"

Since their graduation from seminary in May of 1972 the Baileys have been in their rural field, and the home in which they live was constructed in 1910. There has been considerable remodeling done, both by the churches and the Baileys, who are quite anxious to express their individual personalities in "the place where they live." One of their prized possessions is the organ they purchased, and which "comes alive" under the touch of the which he spoke, much to her chagrin. After all she did want to hear that "lady preacher."

"Perhaps the most perplexing thing for the members of our congregations is when they introduce us," observed Mr. Bailey. "They usually say this is the Rev. Bailey, he's our pastor and this is his wife, she's our minister, too."

As to their future, the young ministers are making no plans, they are so busy with their present duties, and who can tell when the young people of their churches will be ready to make pizza at the manse again. This is only one of the activities that fill the time of the Baileys and make them forget that only 306 people live in the town of Silex.

"The one bad feature is that we do not get to worship together, only on special occasions such as Christmas Eve," the two ministers concluded, but continued that they have enough pluses to balance this one minus.

THERE ARE THREE PURPLE PANSIES in a pretty glass on my kitchen window sill, and I am trying to fool myself into believing it's nearly spring Last Saturday morning in the low winter temperatures and flurrying snowflakes Mrs. Thurman (Ethel) Bailey of Main St., Fayette City, walked outside to get in her car and spied this tiny flash of purple in her yard. She couldn't believe it — but sure enough there were three purple pansies in full bloom. They are still on my window sill, but their heads are drooping, and it looks like I'll have to wait a few months for spring and more pansies.

By-the-way the Baileys have just returned from a trip to Silex, Mo., a little town 60 miles from St. Louis. They spent the holiday season with their son, Gaither, and his wife, Helen, both of whom are Presbyterian ministers and are serving four churches in that area. The Baileys arrived in Missouri on the heels of a severe ice storm and found everything covered with a glaze and the roads almost impassable with inches of ice coating them. Weather prevented too much sightseeing, but the Baileys were on hand for the Christmas services in the churches pastored by the two young ministers in their family.

Banquet for W-P cold draw retirees

The Knights of Columbus Hall in Belle Vernon was the scene of a banquet held by the Cold Draw Department Retirement Club of the Tube Division of Wheeling-Pittsburgh Steel Corporation's Allenport Plant.

The Cold Draw Retirement Club was formed by a group of employees in 1972 and is designed to honor department retirees, who become guests of honor at these banquets. Usually there are from 20 to 25 retirees attending the affairs; however, at this most recent banquet, only 17 were able to be present.

One of those present was James Haywood of Fredericktown, whom the club maintains is the oldest living retired steelworker in the United States. He is 94.

"Ginny", as he is known to his friends, is the father-in-law of the Rev Charles Sowden of Fredericktown, former the pastor of Speers Methodist Church.

Haywood was a prominent baseball in the area in his younger days.

President John Marosco of Belle Vernon indicated the next banquet would also be held at the Belle Vernon Knights of Columbus hall sometime in March or April of 1979 and, as usual, all retirees will be invited as guests.

A financial report was given by Liebert Pierallini and accepted by the membership.

Before the festivities, invocation was given by Ray Pichard, a retiree from Roscoe, and a moment of silence was observed for a deceased retiree, Mr Richard Beisell of Charleroi.

After the dinner, two new retirees, James Liviskie of Speers and Charles Rutherford of California, were acclaimed and presented with the traditional new retiree gift.

During the business meeting, a group picture from the last banquet was given to the club by William Henderson, a club member.

Call Burgess If You Need Speers Police

Any person in need of police protection in Speers Borough should call the Burgess and not the local police officers.

That was made clear at a meeting of council last night.

According to the borough code, the Burgess is to be notified when a police officer is needed. If there is no answer, the person is instructed to call the Police Chief, it was stated.

The phone number of Burgess Al Morgan is HU 3-8844. Police Chief Charles Hazlett's phone number is HU 3-8311.

This matter was brought to the attention of Council last night when auxiliary police officer James Liviskie asked members of Council "Where do I stand?"

Liviskie explained he has been answering "calls all hours of the night."

He also asked Council if they will pay court costs if he is taken into court following a recent arrest he made in Mapleview.

Leo Guttman, a member of Council, who is chairman of the Police and Traffic Committee, stated the costs would "probably be paid because your duties were not explained to you when you were sworn into the office."

According to Guttman, Liviskie should not have been called on this case.

Guttman explained all calls for police are to be channeled through the Burgess in the present set-up. He disclosed only a certain amount of money is in the budget for auxiliary police and therefore the Burgess must use you only when necessary.

It was also brought out the borough does not have full police protection of Sundays when Hazlett is off.

Snakes, Monkeys Corralled in Speers

There's nothing like a six-foot boa constrictor, a couple of cotton mouth water moccasins, two rattlers and six monkeys to liven up a town on a peaceful Sunday morning.

Lt. James Liviskie of Speers Borough police found this dilemma on his hands when a Thomas Joyland Shows trailer-tractor rig upset at the south ramp of Route 70 Sunday at 9:30 a.m.

The driver, who was not identified, said the brakes locked on the rig as he went into the ramp turn. The heavy rig toppled over and smashed.

Reptiles Loose

Crates of snakes and cages of monkeys were broken. The reptiles and monkeys got loose—all over!

Liviskie sped to the scene to assist in the risky round-up.

He said:

"But we didn't have too much trouble. The monkeys were pretty scared and the snakes so shaken up that the rig driver and his helper picked them up like you'd pick up a baby. They made a head-count and found that none of the poisonous snakes had escaped."

Lt. Liviskie estimated loss to the wrecked rig at $1,500. No one was hurt.

To Charleroi

The equipment was enroute to Charleroi for the opening of Veterans Memorial Week and was part of the Thomas Joyland entourage which moved into the Valley from Wheeling.

Said Liviskie:

"You can say one thing — this was not a publicity trick."

Car Overturns, Woman Injured

A full-scale traffic jam occurred on Rt. 88 in Speers borough yesterday when a one-car accident tied up movement of vehicles near the north ramp to the Express road.

Mrs. Rosa McCarthy, 35, of Arnold City, was driving south in Speers about 4:10 p. m. after a Charleroi shopping trip.

Driving alone in her 1954 sedan, Mrs. McCarthy had reached a spot in Speers Road 100 feet south of the North Ramp. Her car got off the concrete and front wheels lodged in the soft shoulders with the usual result. Attempting to turn back, the machine went into a locked-wheel skid and struck a pole.

The auto then overturned, four wheels in the air, and Mrs. McCarthy was severely injured.

She sustained a severe laceration of the scalp, lacerations of the right leg, bruises of the left leg, chest hurts and body and hip abrasions.

She was removed to Charleroi-Monessen hospital and remained there today for treatment and X-ray examination. At 11 a. m. her condition was pronounced "fair."

Meanwhile Police Chief Charles Hazlett and his assistant, Patrolman James Liviskie had their work cut out for them. Besides taking care of the injured woman the officers had a rapidly multi-

WELCOME!

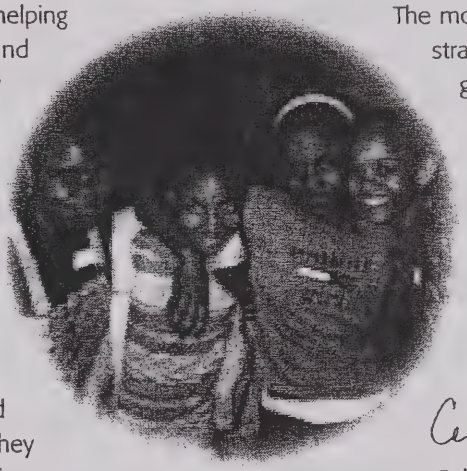

PEARLS girls rock! That's what one friend said to us recently. We couldn't agree more. Every week, with about 120 girls meeting for four hours, it is amazing to hear all of the stories, ideas, and accomplishments. This newsletter will give us a way to share some of the powerful work being done by PEARLS girls.

PEARLS girls are helping other pre-teens and teens learn how to make healthy choices. They are interviewing women role models. They are exploring job internships.

They are setting education and leadership goals. They are learning about finances and friendship. The articles in this newsletter will give you a close up on some of the things they're up to.

Thanks for taking the time to get to know us a bit better.

We want to be partners in building a stronger Milwaukee, and we think supporting Milwaukee's girls in a bigger way is a very important step.

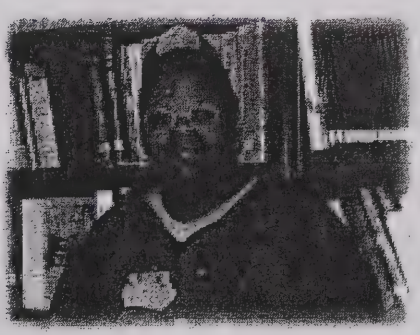

The more all of us demonstrate we believe in girls, the more they will believe in themselves.

How can you help invest in the potential, the PEARL, in every girl?

PEARLS VISITS CHRISTINE GURNIK from Rockwell Automation

Christine Gurnik talked with PEARLS about her career as a program manager at Rockwell Automation, including how she started her career and how women are encouraged to succeed at Rockwell Automation.

PEARLS: Could you describe what you do at Rockwell Automation?

CG: I am a program manager who is in charge of learning and development for global sales. I help people build their leadership ability and work with employees across the company.

PEARLS: How did you begin your career?

CG: I was a personnel specialist in the Air Force where I learned how to do human resource work. The G.I. Bill gave me great benefits and all of my college was paid for.

PEARLS: What is your biggest challenge working at Rockwell Automation?

CG: I have hundreds of people to serve and many priorities to balance. I want to help each of the employees as much as I can. It's fun and creative work. Every day is different.

PEARLS: We heard Rockwell Automation has a Professional Women's Council (PWC). Can you tell us more about the organization?

CG: The mission of PWC is to support the attainment of an environment where all employees contribute equally. The PWC helps women develop their talents, support each other, be more effective, and serve as role models. Just like PEARLS builds leaders and supports girls, our PWC offers some of the same support to women at Rockwell.

PEARLS
STAFF PROFILE

Kathy Landry has been with PEARLS for four years and is the Director of Operations. We asked Kathy a few questions so that we could all get to know her better.

What are your favorite foods?
KL: Italian and Chinese.

What is your favorite book?
KL: Angela's Ashes by Frank McCourt.

What are your hobbies?
KL: Attending my kid's volleyball and basketball games. I also love to cook, garden and work crossword puzzles when time permits.

How has PEARLS changed you?
KL: PEARLS hasn't changed me as much as it has enhanced my life. I feel so fortunate to be able to come to work everyday and be a part of wonderful things happening between the PEARLS girls and the community alike. I like to say that I wear many hats here because my job has a wide range of responsibilities, but the thing I am most grateful for are the friendships I've developed with the teen facilitators, whom I've seen grow from middle school students to confident young women.

ASK A PEARL GIRL:
PEARLS ADVICE

"Ask a PEARL Girl" is an advice column for girls and by girls. PEARLS girls help each other and take our problems seriously. How it works: We publish anonymous questions that ask for advice. In later issues of the newsletter, we will publish your replies – advice or personal experiences. This issue's question is:

What do you do when you don't have friends?

What do you think? If you would like to reply to this question, please forward your written reply to your PEARLS facilitator. Do you have any questions? If so, we encourage you to ask it by writing it down and giving it to your PEARLS facilitator to be answered in the next PEARLS Talk.

PEARLS Promise

We are PEARLS girls and we want to be our best selves. All of the girls in this circle are my PEARLS sisters. We are learning how each one of us is precious and unique. PEARLS helps us believe in ourselves by building:

P is for Personal Responsibility. I can make a difference!

E is for Empathy. I will try to understand how it feels to walk in your shoes.

A is Awareness. I want to know more about myself and the world around me.

R is Respect. I will value you and your opinions, even if we disagree.

L is Leadership. I want to put my beliefs into action and make this world a better place.

S is Support. I want to help and encourage.

We promise to help each other practice these traits. We want to become role models and powerful women who achieve our goals and dreams.

From Gaither Bailey

The only sibling of which I am aware for James, Jr. is a sister known to me as Susie Q. That was the name I knew her by. My Uncle Jim and his wife did not associate with the rest of the family. I don't know why. They never attended family functions or had much to do with any of us. I always got the impression that they thought they were better than the rest of the family. I don't know that to be fact. You know how perceptions of kids are in those matters.

Uncle Jim Liviskie got the most valuable pieces of furniture from my grandmother's house. There were two marble top tables that belonged to her. Besides a few goblets and dishes, I have the glass dome that covered the cake top from grandma's wedding cake. My mother used it for hers and when I got married the first time, she gave it to me for mine. I use it now to cover the ceramic doves that were on top of the wedding cake for my second marriage.

Busy, Interesting Meeting Held By Cub Scout Pack

A busy and interesting meeting of Cub Scout Pack 124 was held recently in the Presbyterian church, with John Brown, Scoutmaster, opening the meeting by having the group sing America and pledge allegiance to the flag.

Mrs. John Gilliam of Speers was pleasantly surprised when she was presented with a gift from the Pack for her faithful and untiring service as a Den Mother. Mrs. Gilliam is retiring from her position in the Pack, and Jimmy Liviskie also gave her a gift in behalf of his fellow cubs.

Special awards went to Tommy Darby, who received two silver stars and a gold star; Kenny Vandermer, bear badge, Jimmy Liviskie gold star and Lion Badge; Jimmy Cox, silver badge.

While the boys played games, their parents and Den Mothers, with Mr. Brown presiding, held a meeting discussing summer activities of the Pack. Plans were made for a May meeting, the theme of which will be "Circus". In June, a Father-Son outing will be held at Skeleton Park, as well as a Strawberry Festival to be held at the Pesbyterian church. The exact dates of these events will be announced later. For July, a fishing contest and party is planned, and during August, an all-family picnic at Redd's Beach will be enjoyed. A wiener roast is planned for September.

Since the theme for April was "Wildlife and Forestry", the cubs made and brought bird houses, feeding stations, and planted boxes of lettuce and onions. Others showed the difference in trees before and after a forest fire.

A highlighting feature of the evening was an interesting talk and discussion of local birds and their habits by Miss Dora Sphar of Charleroi, R. D. 1. She showed pictures and actual bird nests from her famous collection from the tiny humming bird nest, the size of a silver dollar, to the larger nests. The boys and their parents enjoyed examining the collection, and asked questions which Miss Sphar readily answered.

The meeting was closed with the group repeating the Scout Code.

Cub Scout Pack Entertained At Annual Dinner

Cub Scouts of Pack 124 enjoyed their second annual Blue and Gold dinner this week in the Presbyterian church, with places laid for 110 guests for the serving of a delicious menu.

After dinner, Pack Master J. B. Brown gave awards to a number of the boys, including Hector Riva, Lion badge, Tommy Darby, Bear badge, Kramer Gilmore, Wolf badge, Mike Gwaley, Silver Star, Jimmy Laviskis, Gold and Silver Arrow, and James Cox, also Gold and Silver Arrow.

The troop committee members were then presented with their service pins for the past year, these going to Arthur Paluso, William T. Darby, Fred Vandermer and Robert Quinlivan. Service pins were also presented to Den Mothers and Dads for their earnest and faithful work during the past year. These went to Mr. and Mrs. John B. Brown, John Brown, Glen Paluso, Robert Quinlavin, Gary Carson of Den One; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sechez, Richard Lose, Keith Daugherty, Martin Baird, Edwin Sechez, Den Two; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vezzetti, Joe Bazil, Joe DeStefan, Tommy Darby, Den Three; Mr. and Mrs. John Gillon, Jimmy Liviskie, Larry Hanchin, Kenny Vandermer, Tommy Myers, Steve Zuraw and Michael Gwaley, Den Four.

District Scout Executive Herbert Platts, his wife and two daughters, were guests. Mr. Platts gave a brief talk, expressing his appreciation to Mr. Brown and Mr. Vezzetti for their fine work in presenting the March theme of "Knights Of Yore". Appreciation was also extended to Mrs. Gillon, who has given up being a Den Mother but will still help with cubbing in many ways. Boy Scout Master, Alfred Jeffries and his wife were also present, the former inviting the eleven year old boys who will soon be leaving the Cubs to join the Boy Scouts.

The program closed with the group repeating the Law of the Pack.

INFORMATION: about the McLatchies from a conversation with Isabella Anderson, May 26, 2006

"The McLatchies were well-to-do. Hamilton was a contractor and built many houses in New Stevenston. He built the house they lived in. I saw it. I sent you a picture of their house in Millport, Scotland. That's a kind of resort on the coast. When Mother went back to Scotland, she took Margaret and Sally with her. They knew the Charleston and were invited to perform it on the stage over there. My mother was not happy with my father. He did not make much money (like her father had). First he worked in the tin mill; then he was a janitor. We got an apartment for free because he did that. He was sick. He was like an old man when he was young. He could not help it (that he did not make much money).

INFORMATION: about Margaret McLatchie Kerr and her family from a conversation with Isabella Anderson, May 26, 2006

Neither (young) Margaret or Joe Kerr had children, so there were no grandchildren for their parents. The four of them just kept to themselves. Then Uncle Joe married a woman nobody liked. They'd known her in Scotland and she'd been a troublemaker there. I think Margaret (McLatchie Kerr) died in the 1940's. (Young) Margaret never even had a date. She was very pretty and quiet. I guess she just didn't have the gumption."

SOCIETY

Choir Party At Stroud Home

Four birthday anniversaries were celebrated at a party given last evening in home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Stroud, North Charleroi—those of Mrs. Stroud, her son William, D. H. Johnson and P. J. Mollenauer. Members of the choir of the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church, husbands and wives were guests of the evening. Mr. Stroud, Mr. Johnson and Mr. Mollenauer sing in the choir and were presented with appropriate little gifts, symbolic of their singing positions in their choir.

The evening was pleasantly spent in games, the guest dividing into three groups for the entertainment which was in progress in the living room, den and dining room. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the games. Then all grouped together and later joined in the singing of hymns and old time ballads, with Mrs. Stroud at the piano. William Stroud also favored with several solos.

The guest list in entirety included: Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Stroud, son William; Mr. and Mrs. D. H Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Mollenauer, Mr. and Mrs. John S. ELLIS ISLAND INFORMATION: ISABELLA MCLATCHIE ANDERSON

She arrived on the Carmania, sailing from Liverpool May 3, 1921, and arriving in New York on May 12, 1921.
She gave her age as 25, born in Parkhead, Scotland.
She said she was going to her husband Alexander Anderson who lived on Lincoln Avenue in Charleroi, Washington County, Pennsylvania.
Her parents lived in Thom Hill Cottage, Carfin Street, New Stevenston, Scotland.
She intended to live in the United States permanently and become a citizen.
She had a mark on her neck.
She was 5'2" tall, had a pale complexion, brown hair, and brown eyes.
Traveling with her was her child Greta McL(atchie), age 3 ½, and her child Sarah McV(ey), age 11 months.
Her last residence was New Stevenston, Scotland.

NOTES FROM INTERVIEW: with Isabella Anderson, May 22, 2006

"My mother died of pneumonia in a nursing home. But she had some sort of an infection, too. She used to tell me she'd had three husbands and I'd had none. She wasn't joking; she was being nasty! Her second husband was Thomas Gulevicz–I'm not sure how to spell it. There's a Z in there somewhere. They were married about two years, and he died in an automobile accident. She came up to visit my sister Sara, and she met her third husband on the bus. He sent her flowers on her birthday, and before I knew it, she was married again. I thought, "Haven't you learned anything?"

"I was born in Scotland. Mother went back to visit her family and found out she was pregnant. She decided she'd better stay over there until I was born. (1926) I was born three months premature. She'd gone on a buggy ride with her brother and had been bumping all over–I think that's why I was born early."

"We called my sister Margaret Greta and my sister Sara Sadie. She started calling herself Sally."

SARAH MCLATCHIE

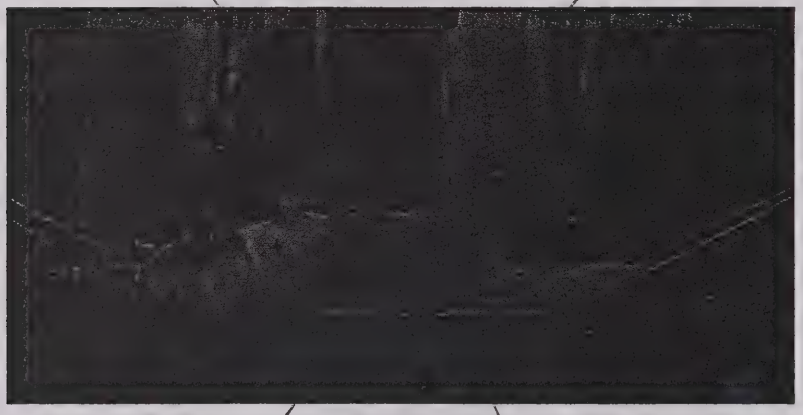

Emigrated aboard the Carmania out of Liverpool, arriving in New York at Ellis Island on 12 May 1921. She stated that she was 18, born in Whiffet, Scotland; intended to stay in the United States and become a citizen; had never before been in the United States. She said she was going to her brother Hamilton McLatchie who lived in Charleroi, Pennsylvania, and had been living with her parents in New Stevenston, Scotland in Thom Hill Cottage, Carfin Street. She had been working as a domestic servant. Her eyes were brown, she was "dark" complected, and her hair was "dark."

NOTES FROM AN INTERVIEW: with Isabella Anderson, June 4, 2006

I met Sarah McLatchie (Ferguson) in Scotland when we went over there in 1960. I called her Aunt Fetty. She lived in Glasgow. We traveled on the Queen Mary going one way and on the Queen Elizabeth going the other way. I don't remember which. They were wonderful ships. When we went, they still had a class division. We were in second class. We would have dinner at 5 or 6 and then first class would eat at 7 or 8. We visited so many relatives in Scotland that one day I counted I had drunk eleven cups of tea. I really had to go to the bathroom! Each person you visited would offer you tea and whatever they had to eat. We visited Dick McLatchie. He was very old and in a nursing home then, but we saw him.

Ballymena

Ballymena (Irish: An Baile Meánach, i.e. middle townland) is a town in County Antrim, Northern Ireland and the seat of Ballymena Borough Council. It had a population of 28,717 people in the 2001 Census.

The town is built on land given to the Adair family by King Charles I in 1626, on the basis that the town holds two annual fairs and a free Saturday market in perpetuity. The Saturday market still runs and the town hosts Ireland's largest two day agricultural show at the Ballymena Showgrounds. There are still many historic buildings in the town. The Town Hall was built in 1924 on the site of the old Market House. The Adair Arms Hotel is one of the town's most beautiful buildings.

Early history

The first recorded history of the Ballymena area dates to the Early Christian period from the 5th to the 7th century. Ringforts found in the townland of Ballykeel and a site known as Camphill Fort in the townland of Ballee may also have been of this type. There are a number of souterrain sites within a 2 km radius of the centre of Ballymena.

Two miles north of Ballymena in the townland of Kirkinriola, the ancient parish church and graveyard possess several indicators of Early Christian settlement including a souterrain. Also in 1868, a gravedigger found a large stone slab on which was carved a cross with the inscription ord do degen. This refers to Bishop Degen, who lived in Ireland during the 7th century. This stone is now in the porch of the Parish Church of St Patrick, in the Parish of Kilconriola, which is found in Castle Street, Ballymena.

At the end of the 5th century, a church was founded in Connor, 5 miles south of Ballymena. This was followed by a monastery at Templemoyle, Kells. In 831, however, the Norse invaded the Ballymena area, burning the church.

In the 12th century, the Normans conquered much of County Antrim and County Down and created the core of the Earldom of Ulster. During this campaign they built great mounds of earth topped by wooden towers, referred to as mottes, as defensive structures. Harryville's motte-and-bailey is one of the best examples of this type of fortification in Northern Ireland. Some sources, however, credit the Uí Fhloinn with building the mid-Antrim mottes and baileys in imitation of the invaders; the Uí Fhloinn defeated and repelled the Earl of Ulster, John de Courcy, in 1177 and 1178.

In 1315, Edward Bruce (brother of King Robert I of Scotland, known as "Robert Bruce") invaded Ireland. On September 10, 1315, at the Battle of Tawnybrack (5 miles south of Ballymena at Kells), Edward conquered the army of Richard De Burgo, the Norman Earl of Ulster.

In 1576, Queen Elizabeth I granted land, including the town of Ballymena, to Sir Thomas Smith. The lands had been forfeited to the crown after Shane O'Neill's resistance in the 1560s. Smith brought English settlers to the area. By 1581, Smith's settlement failed and the lands reverted to the crown.

On May 10, 1607, King James I granted the native Irish chief, Ruairí Óg MacQuillan the Ballymena Estate. The estate passed through several owners, eventually passing into the possession of William Adair, a Scottish laird from Kinhilt in southwestern Scotland. The estate was temporarily renamed "Kinhilstown" after the Adair's lands in Scotland. The original castle of Ballymena was built in the early 17th century, situated to take advantage of an ancient ford over the River Braid. In 1626 Charles I confirmed the grant of the Ballymena Estate to William Adair, giving him the right to hold a market at Ballymena on every Saturday.

In 1641, the local Ballymena garrison fought against the rebels but had to retreat to Carrickfergus. Ballymena's first market house (on the site of the present town hall) was built in 1684.

In 1690, the Duke of Württemburg, a Williamite general, used Galgorm Castle as his headquarters. Sir Robert Adair raised a Regiment of Foot for King William III and fought at the Battle of the Boyne.

By 1704, the population of Ballymena had reached 800. In 1707, the first Protestant (Church of Ireland) parish church was built. In 1740, the original Ballymena Castle burned down. The Gracehill Moravian settlement was founded in 1765. During the 1798 rebellion, Ballymena was occupied from June 7 to June 9 by a force of around 10,000 United Irishmen, who stormed the Market House (now the Town Hall) killing three of its defenders.

The first Roman Catholic church in Ballymena was not consecrated until 1827. By 1834 the population of Ballymena was about 4,000. In 1848 the Belfast and Ballymena Railway was established. In 1865 Robert Alexander Shafto Adair started building Ballymena Castle, a magnificent family residence, in the Demesne. The Castle was not completed until 1887.

20th century

In 1900, Ballymena assumed urban status. The Adairs disposed of most of their Ballymena estate to the occupying tenants in 1904, under the provisions of the Irish Land Act of 1903. The "old" town hall building, which also contained the post office and estate office, burned down in 1919. Prince Albert, Duke of York (later King George VI) laid the cornerstone to the new town hall on July 24, 1924, and it was officially opened on November 20, 1928. The Urban District Council petitioned for borough status and the Charter was granted in December 1937. The first meeting of councillors as a borough Council was held on May 23, 1939. The population of Ballymena reached 13,000. Ballymena Castle was demolished in the 1950s. In 1973, the Urban and Rural District Councils were merged to create the present Ballymena Borough Council.

During the later half of the 20th Century Ballymena, like many other once prosperous industrial centres in Northern Ireland, experienced an economic downturn. Many of its former factories closed, Ballymena is now becoming a centre of information-based, international corporations in an effort to give a kickstart to their stagnant economy.

NOTES: from an interview with Isabella Anderson, daughter of Alexander Anderson and Isabella McLatchie on May 22, 2006.

"My poor father...he had worked in the tin mills. He shoved coal and it affected his health. He had a series of mini-strokes. In those days you did not go to the doctor. We did not have the money. He had a series of mini-strokes. He was the janitor of Stalman Apartments. He kept the furnace going and cleaned the halls. He was old-looking even as a young man. I went on a vacation to Atlantic City. He helped me with my suitcase. He asked me to bring him some saltwater taffy. I sent him a big box of it. I came back and was met at the station by my family instead of my boyfriend. My father had had a heart attack and had been in the hospital the week I was gone. They hadn't wanted to call me during my vacation. He had a heart attack, and he died. That was in July. It was Labor Day weekend. I drove up to Corning, New York. I came home and mother was not there. George Koontz had died (her sister's husband). I said I was not going on any more vacations."

"Father's parents were from Ireland. They were married there. They went to Scotland and all their children were born there.

Christian Theme Features Meeting Of Fidelis Guild

A Christian theme was presented Thursday evening at the March meeting of the Fidelis Guild of the Speers Methodist church.

Mrs. Jack Naylor was devotional leader, and chose as her topic "Christian Maturity". Members answered to roll call by giving their definition of a "fruitful Christian".

Mrs. Walter Lenhart, president, conducted the meeting, and old and new business was discussed. An interesting discussion on the Bible followed.

Choosing St. Patrick's colors of green and white, Mrs. Edward Brady, Mrs. Robert Harper and Mrs. Fred Vandermer, as hostesses, served lunch as the concluding feature of the evening.

Girl Scouts, Pastor Present Program For 9th Street PTA

An impressive opening ceremony by a group of Charleroi Girl Scouts, and an inspiring message by Rev. Robert Laing, pastor of the First Methodist church, here, made the meeting, Thursday evening of the Ninth Street Parent-Teachers Association, one of the most interesting of the current season.

Mrs. Thomas Barrow, president, opened the meeting by reading a poem, "Mother's Petition", which was in keeping with the Easter season. The Girl Scouts then conducted a flag ceremony, and Mrs. Bruno Vezzani, program chairman, introduced the Brownie leader, Mrs. Sam Crawford. The salute to the flag and the singing of "America" was led by the Brownie Troop of Ninth Street School. The Brownies introduced themselves and gave their pledge. They sang "Hi Little Lassie", "Run Along Home", and "Good Night Brownies", and then danced to a Swedish song.

Miss Olga Biseda, Girl Scout leader, was introduced and in turn, had her Scouts introduce themselves. These girls gave their Scout Promise and Laws, and presented a skit, "The World Of Tomorrow". They sang "Sandy Land" and further performed with an American folk dance. The Girl Scout prayer and taps concluded the girl's ceremony.

Mrs. Floyd Graham, a guest, made an announcement of the annual Spring County Council meeting to be held at the Patten school in Washington, Pa., on April 25.

Rev. Laing was then introduced to the parents and teachers, and addressed the group on "Spiritual Values For Modern Living". He emphasized the obligation of parents and stressed that clear character cannot be built without religion. He brought his talk to a close with a beautiful poem.

Mrs. Vezzani then gave an outline of next month's meeting, when the Cubs and Boy Scouts will be presented in a program, and Steven Stepanian, Physical Education Director, will speak on "Recreation and Physical Fitness".

The P. T. A. banner was awarded to Miss Shephard, first grade teacher, for having the largest number of parents present for the month.

Routine reports of officers and committee chairmen were then given, and included one by Mrs. Joseph Pagano, Ways and Means chairman, who told of the bake sale held in January.

A nominating committee, composed of Mrs. Raymond Snyder, Mrs. Mellichael and Mrs. Sara Sutherland, was then elected, and a donation was made to the high school band, invited to play at the Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington, D. C. Another contribution of $100 was made to the Ninth Street School, to be used by the teachers of the school in whatever way they deem necessary.

A social hour followed and on the committee of hostesses were Mrs. Marie Baehr, chairman, Mrs. Jack Naylor, Mrs. Zawicki, Mrs. Julia Kostalansky, Mrs. Dolores Daugherty, Mrs. Beatrice Hazuka, Mrs. Mildred Crilley, Mrs. Ruth

MARGARET ANDERSON (NAYLOR), DAUGHTER OF ALEXANDER

NOTES: from an interview with Isabella Anderson, June 4, 2006

Margaret and Jack Naylor went together a long time. Jack Naylor was Catholic. He took us all on vacations. One day Margaret and Jack announced that they were going on a vacation to Florida. Mother didn't care (even though they were not married). But then they came back and said they'd gotten married in Uniontown. They had not told Mother (that they were going to do that). She didn't want to lose Margaret's money. So she didn't talk to Margaret for months even though they were living with us, waiting for their house to be built. Not a word. That was Mother's way of punishing us. That sour puss walking around. She could be nasty.

NOTES: from an interview with Isabella Anderson, June 20, 2006

My sister Margaret worked in the office of Sealtest Foods before she got pregnant. I graduated and worked there. Then when I started working at the nursing home, I needed someone to work there on weekends for me, and she'd come in. When I was hospitalized, she worked in my place for six weeks. Did the accounting and everything. She was intelligent.

Women Enjoy Yule Program At Meeting

The annual Christmas dinner party of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Speers Methodist church was marked by the story of the first Christmas, told in pantomime.

Places were laid in the church dining room for twenty-two at a u-shaped table, arranged with Santa's reindeer, tall red and white yule trees, winter flowers and snowmen. Favors at each place were shepherd's crooks, and Christmas candy.

The dinner was served by members of the Fidelis Guild of the church, and in charge of decorations were Margaret Naylor and Mildred Crilley. In another part of the room was a gaily decorated Christmas tree, holding gifts which were later distributed by Mrs. Ada Utterback and Daryl Joan Province.

Mrs. Daisy Green had charge of the program, and the play, "The First Christmas", was presented immediately after the serving. Pauline Burke played the role of Mary, Irene Toth, Joseph, and reader of scriptural prophecies was Margaret Naylor. Lois Lenhart read several poems, and playing the parts of the wisemen were Mary Evans, Betty Allshouse, Edith Stedman, Emily Smith and Daryl Joan Province.

A talk was given by Mrs. Green, entitled "No Time", and group singing of carols interspersed the program features, with Mrs. Bertha Taylor accompanying at the piano.

Mrs. Taylor, as president of the society, then extended yule greetings, and the program closed with prayer.

A business session was then conducted, and Mrs. Alice Andrews led the group in devotions. During the meeting, the women made plans to distribute cheer boxes to shut-ins of the church and community during the yule season.

Fidelis Guild Entertained In Speers Church

Opened with their pledge and prayer, the January meeting of members of the Fidelis Guild of the Speers Methodist church was an event of Thursday evening in the church social rooms.

Mrs. Walter Lenhart, president, conducted the meeting, and presented as devotional leader, Mrs. Joseph Kassler. Her topic was "Misunderstood Religion", and she closed her part of the program with prayer.

Routine reports included those of the secretary, Mrs. Paul Trembley, roll call by Mrs. George Revalla, flower fund chairman, Mrs. Vernon Crilley, and Mrs. Margaret Naylor, sick committee chairman.

An auction and parcel post sale was planned for February 28, in the church basement.

A social hour followed the meeting, and refreshments were served by hostesses, Mrs. Wilford Stedman and Mrs. George Revalla.

NIGHT ENJOYED BY LARGE CROWD

Graduates Have Fun, Frolic At High School Auditorium

The Senior Class of 1935 completed its activities last night with the annual class night. The only remaining event is the commencement to be held at the Coyle Theatre Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The affair last night drew a huge throng to the high school auditorium. The spectators were packed almost like sardines in the rear of the auditorium and of the balcony during the progress of the program.

The stage setting was in the form of a huge "Cougar" high school paper, with the front page opened by two students as the actors entered the scene. Margaret Anderson was editor-in-chief of the school paper, and she had many assistants.

The Seniors presented a very fine appearance, the boys in their new suits and the girls in their evening gowns. And it's no secret that each of them felt proud as they made their appearance before the huge audience.

The program contained the usual class history, music, poetry, jokes, presentation and acceptance of the ladder, prophecy, art pictures, last will and testament, with members of the class being in complete charge. It was the Seniors' night and to top it off right a dance was held downstairs in the gymnasum after the program upstairs was concluded.

They had sandwiches and everything, too. The reporter didn't wait to find out who stole the will, because he was too busy sampling the "eats" downstairs to be interested in the outcome of a "mere" court trial, at which Cardon Clegg was the judge. But it was announced as the scene opened that someone had stolen the will. It might have been the faculty, or the janitor, or the junior class, but it wasn't "ye scribe" and he left before he could be accused.

But it was a most successful evening and the Seniors are entitled to all the nice things that were said about them Some of the girls received

Sara M. Anderson And George Koontz Wed At Candlelight Service Last Night

The soft glow of candlelight and an arrangement of ferns at the altar of the Presbyterian church formed a most impressive setting for the marriage of Miss Sara M. Anderson, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Alex Anderson of Stahlman Apartments, Charleroi, and George M. Koontz, son of Mrs. W. E. Hill of Benton, Illinois.

The ceremony was performed last night at 6:30 p. m. by pastor of the church, Rev. Frank S. Montgomery.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose for her wedding attire a street length dress of grey crepe, fashioned with a draped front. Her white gloves were of elbow length and her tiny hat of artificial roses was trimmed with lilac veiling. Her flowers were a bridal bouquet of American Beauty roses to match the color of those worn on her hat. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls and her other accessories were black.

As her sister's matron of honor, Mrs. Jack Naylor of Charleroi, R. D. wore a two piece pale blue crepe dress in pretty contrast to the outfit of the bride. She also wore white gloves and carried a bonnet of yellow tea roses. Her accessories were navy blue.

Attending the groom as best man was his brother, Clyde S. Koontz of Washington, Pa.

The bride's mother wore a two piece grey print dress with navy blue accessories.

Following the ceremony at the church, a reception was held at the bride's home, with approximately thirty guests attending. A buffet luncheon was served, and a large wedding cake, which centered the table was flanked on either side with candelabra.

Later in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Koontz left for a motor trip to Cleveland, Ohio, and upon their return will reside in Wilkinsburg. The bride's going away costume was a two piece suit of beige with black accessories.

Mrs. Koontz is a graduate of Charleroi high school and has been employed in the Charleroi business office of the Bell Telephone company. The groom, a graduate of Washington high school and Washington and Jefferson college, where he was a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity, is District Manager of the Bell Telephone company.

Guests present at the wedding were from Washington, Wilkinsburg, Ingram, Pittsburgh and Charleroi.

Not always does a fancy name mean a fancy affair—but in the instance of the Senior Pumpkin Promenade this statement holds true. The Pumpkin Promenade is an original idea of the local Senior High School class and will take place in the gymnasium of the Senior High School this coming Friday night, October 28.

The Hallowe'en pumpkin will be the theme for the entire decorative setting—which will be elaborate, the committee reports. Dancing from 8 to 11:30 p. m. will be to the music of Frank Paterra and his orchestra with Lucille DeMille as vocalist.

This is the first get-together dance for the school set this year and enthusiasm runs high as the date nears. Novel ideas galore will be introduced at the affair, directed by a committee composed of Miss Jane Cavanaugh, Miss Sadie Anderson, Holbert Carroll, Miss Della Monack and Elmer Strausser. The entire student body, and especially the seniors, have adopted the slogan "swing and sway the senior way" in anticipation of the coming Pumpkin Promenade.

George M. Koontz, 51 an executive of the Bell Telephone Company was fatally stricken on a Pittsburgh street last night.

Mr. Koontz, who married a Charleroi girl, was on his way to a department store to meet his wife to do some shopping when he was suddenly seized by a heart attack. Mrs Koontz, on her way to meet her husband, had noticed a crowd. Inquiring, she was told a man had been stricken ill.

Not realizing it was her husband, Mrs. Koontz continued on her way to the designated store. When he did not arrive she returned to her home and later received the word Mr. Koontz had been fatally striken.

Mr. Koontz was born in Washington, a son of John and Blanche Miles Koontz, May 14, 1899. He attended the public schools at Washington.

He had been employed by the Bell Telephone Company through out his active years, starting at the Washington office. He won promotion and at the present time was manager of McKeesport Division, which includes the branch office in Washinton, Charleroi and Carnegie, in addition to McKeesport. Previously he had been manager at Swissvale.

Mr. Koontz was a member of the Masonic fraternity.

He was twice married, His first wife, Mary Rottorf, died some years ago. One daughter, Mrs. Mary Soisson, of Pittsburgh, survives by this marriage. His second wife, the former Sally Anderson, of Charleroi, survives with three children: George Melvin, Jr., Katherine and David.

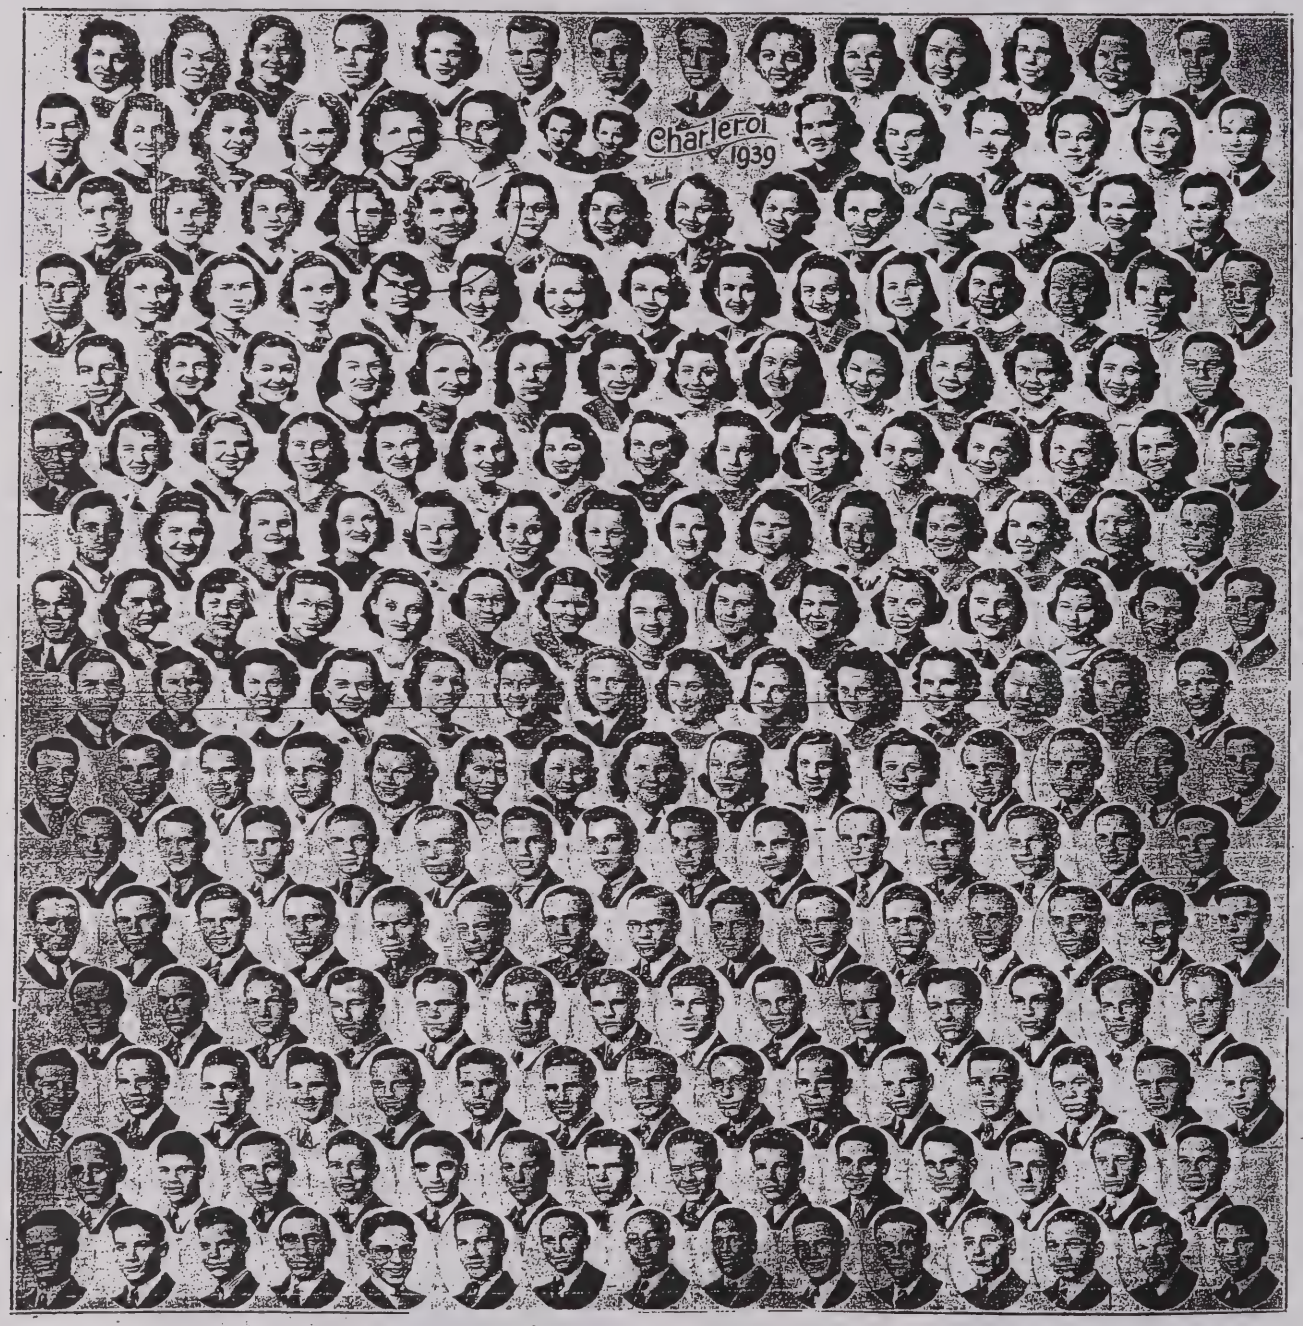

Mr. Koontz also leaves his mother, Mrs. Blanche Miles Koontz; a sister, Mrs. Ida Murphy, and a brother, Clyde S. Koontz, all of Washington. The remains were taken to Washington last night.

SALLY ANDERSON

INFORMATION: about Sally Anderson Koontz and Isabella Anderson from a conversation with Isabella Anderson, May 26, 2006

"Sally worked as a telephone operator. That's how she met George Koontz. She worked as an operator in Winter Park later, too. George's sister hated Sally. On Sally's wedding day, the sister gave Sally a letter telling her how much she hated her. Of course, she went crazy later. (The day he died) She had been set to meet him at a department store to buy a TV set. When she got there, there was a crowd around. He'd had identification on him, and the telephone company was called. It was a man from the company that told Sally that George was dead.

That was Labor Day weekend. In November Sally took the three babies and went to spend Thanksgiving with George's family and got snowed in. Everyone was snowed in. I worked for Sealtest Foods then and the drivers could not get out to deliver milk. Sally called to be rescued, and we could not get to her. So she said, 'I'm not staying in Pennsylvania.' In the spring my father died, and Sally talked my mother into going to live in Florida.

NOTES FROM INTERVIEW: with Isabella Anderson, May 22, 2006, in reference to her engagement to her engagements.

"He (Roydell Rosfeld) had come back from WWII, and he wanted to get married. We were poor. I was working but there was no money for a wedding. My parents had no money. I was ashamed to tell my boyfriend so I ended it. They wanted us to marry in the Presbyterian Church. He came from a family better off. They were not well off, but they had the house...Then I was engaged again, but he died shortly before the wedding.

I never liked children. I still don't. Sharon (Naylor) and Jackie (Naylor) were terrible. I lived with Margaret (Anderson Naylor) in Charleroi with Mother after Father died. Sally's husband had died. She was spending Thanksgiving with the Koontz's in Washington, Pennsylvania. There was a huge snowstorm. She got stuck in the house with three kids. My mother went off to Florida, and I was left with four kids. I think I shared a bedroom with Sharon. One morning I woke up and saw Sharon and Jackie standing over me, holding a worm over my mouth."

INFORMATION: about Margaret Anderson Naylor and Isabella Anderson from a conversation with Isabella Anderson, May 26, 2006

In the spring (of 1950) my father died, and (my widowed sister Sally Koontz) talked my mother into going to live in Florida. One day I came home and found out Mother had sold everything in the house except my clothes and a bed I could take to Margaret's and my father's wardrobe. They said I was to go live with Margaret. I had no money. I could not find a room that I could afford. I worked in the Sealtest Dairy office. Eventually, I was office manager.

I lived with Margaret for about five years. They were not happy with me, and I was not happy with them. But at the time I gave half my money to Margaret (for her keep) and sent money to Mother so she could put it in the collection plate, so that did not leave much for me. Finally, Margaret told me to move. I've been mad about the way she did it for years. She said, 'You ought to look in the paper for a room to rent.' I had a friend in real estate and got in an apartment. I liked my apartment. Then Mother's third husband died, and she called me every night saying, 'I need you.' Sally had moved to Clearwater (Florida) and was working in a department store office. And then everyone died. Margaret died. (My cousin) Margaret Kerr died. She was my traveling companion. I was tired of working at the nursing home where I had a job. So I went to Florida. I don't like Florida but where am I going to go?

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Anderson of 306 Fifth St., announce the engagement of their daughter, Isabella, to Roydell Rosfeld, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Johnston of 210 Rostraver St., Monessen, Pa.

The bride-elect graduated with the Class of 1944 in the Charleroi High School, and is employed at the Rieck-McJunkin Dairy Co. Mr. Rosfeld is a veteran of the European Theatre of Operations and served with the armed forces for three years, as a Sergeant.

No definite wedding plans have been made by the couple.

Family Jars Shaken Out In the Courts

Frank L. Hartman formerly of Monessen but now of Monongahela has brought suit against his wife Ollie Craven Hartman and the testimony before Commissioner Homer T. Gant was somewhat of a damaging character and if true shows that Mrs. Hartman was anything but a fond and loving companion. The parties have evidently had rough house ever since they were made one on New Years day 1896 and Mr. Hartman has uphill sledding and after being banged around for several years he decided to slide out from under the wedded roof and recuperate. Hartman testified that his married life was all turmoil. He says that his wife made his life a nightmare. He says that her language was not of the choicest and loud and abusive at all times. He says his wife would go away for weeks at a time and leave him at home to take care of their boy and do the cooking. He testified that his wife beat him, would strike him with clubs and choke him. He says he never lifted a hand to strike back. She would hurl dishes and had a revolver hidden under the refrigerator which he believed she was going to use in killing him as she had threatened several times to do so. He testified that he had to leave her for life was burdensome.

A number of witnesses testified that the woman possessed a bad temper and that she made it hot for her husband and ran him out of the house many times. If the testimony figures at all the degree will likely be granted.

Monessen Man Married

At the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Frank Hartman, on Grant street Monongahela, on Tuesday evening, occurred the marriage of Miss Gretty M. Craven, of Belle Vernon, and M. J. E. Alexander, of Monessen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. H. Shawger, pastor of the First Baptist church, and was witnessed by only a few intimate friends. The happy couple left immediately for a wedding trip and on their return will make their home in Monessen, where Mr. Alexander is employed. The young couple is known to many Monessen people and their friends here extend congratulations.

pub. 1912

(I) The family in Connellsville was founded there by Henry Rhodes , of Germantown, Pennsylvania , a descendant of John Roades , the founder. The coming to Fayette county of Henry Rhodes was in 1800 , when his daughter Mary married Joseph Smith , who came to investigate a land purchase made by his father, John Smith , of Germantown . The history of this purchase is interesting: Colonel Hayes , a revolutionary officer, owned, at Barren Run , near Smithtown in Rostraver township, Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania , a tract of about twenty-two hundred acres. There he built a log house, the first in the locality. Later he sold his holdings to one Shields , who in turn sold the tract to one Backhouse . The latter died before payment was made and Shields , being in need of money, advertised it for sale at Greensburg , the county seat; there being no bidders, he obtained authority from the court to offer it for sale in Philadelphia , where it was sold in 1798 to John Smith . In 1800 John Smith sent his son Joseph out to investigate his purchase. The latter, before starting on this long trip, married Mary Rhodes and together they came to Western Pennsylvania and founded the family later so numerous in and around Smithtown . This brings the narrative to the coming of Henry Rhodes , then a resident of Germantown . He accompanied his daughter and son-in-law on their western journey in 1800 , no doubt taking his own family along, or bringing them soon after. He lived in the old log house built by Colonel Hayes and later bought a farm, on part of which Smithtown now stands. He had nine children: John , Michael , Peter , Henry , all of whom founded families, and five daughters, who married: Joseph Smith , Peter Sowash , Jacob Fullmer , Solomon Hough and Michael Warner . Henry Rhodes , Jr., bought land along the river known as the "Heltervan tract," part of which he sold to his brother John .

(II) John , son of Henry Rhodes , purchased a part of the "Heltervan tract" from his brother Henry , married, and there reared a family consisting of Betsey , Samuel , Abraham , Henry John and Joseph . + Esther

(III) Joseph , son of John Rhodes , a farmer of Westmoreland county , became a wealthy and leading man in his community. He married and left issue, including Joseph .

(IV) Joseph (2), son of Joseph (1) Rhodes , (this name is also spelled in Westmoreland county , Rhoades) was born at Smithtown (now in South Huntington township, Westmoreland county). He was a farmer and distiller; justice of the peace and a member of the Universalist church. He served three years in the civil war in Company B, 77th Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry, receiving honorable discharge at Nashville, Tennessee , June 22, 1865 . He married Susanna Rowe , now deceased. They had nine children, one being Henry .

(V) Henry (2), son of Joseph (2) Rhodes , was born June 9, 1866 . He was educated in the public schools, and began business life as manager of the store operated by the Youghiogheny River Coal Company. He later formed a partnership with Irwin Smith , and until 1900 they operated a general store at Blythedale . In that year they sold out to the Pittsburgh Coal Company, and Mr. Rhodes settled in Connellsville with his family. He purchased the general store of I. C. Smutz and continued in business until 1910 . He then engaged in real estate and insurance, until April, 1912 , when he embarked in the grocery business. He is an active Democrat and was school director of New Haven borough before consolidation. He is prominent in the Masonic order, being a past master and holding the thirty-second degree of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite; in religious faith a Methodist. He married Mollie , daughter of John Branthoover , for many years foreman, later superintendent of a coal company in Indiana county, Pennsylvania . His first wife died young, leaving a daughter Mollie , aforementioned, born in Indiana county , December 28, 1867 , who is still living and, like her husband, a devoted Methodist. Children of Henry and Mollie Rhodes : Roy Otis , of whom further; Freda , Joseph , Gertrude , Marguerite .

(VI) Roy Otis , eldest son of Henry (2) Rhodes , was born at Smithtown, Pennsylvania , April 20, 1887 . He was educated in the public school of Blythedale , and began business life as a clerk in his father's store, continuing until he was nineteen years of age. He then spent two years at Valparaiso University (Indiana), after which he returned to the store. He acquired a knowledge of stenography and for six months held a position at Dunbar as stenographer. On May 5, 1911 , he opened a gentlemen's furnishing store at No. 809 West Main street, Connellsville , where he is still located in successful business. He is a Democrat and in November, 1911 , was the candidate of his party for city auditor, failing of election by but two votes. He is a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, and one of the popular rising young business men of Connellsville .

The Thompsons of Uniontown, Pennsylvania , herein recorded, have an ancestry traced to many lands, paternally of Scotch-Irish blood, and maternally of German and Holland Dutch, the Markles coming from Alsace and Amsterdam . In this country the Markles settled in Berks county, Pennsylvania , the Thompsons coming in from the South, residing for a time in Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania , then going to the "dark and bloody" battle grounds of Kentucky .

The founder of the family in Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania , William Thompson , great-grandfather of Josiah V. Thompson , came to Mount Pleasant from the Cumberland Valley of Pennsylvania , from the Big Spring Presbyterian Church congregation near Chambersburg, Pennsylvania . He served throughout the revolutionary war from beginning to end, serving in the battles of the Brandywine and Germantown in 1776 , and those of Trenton and Princeton in 1777 , and also at Yorktown , where Cornwallis surrendered. He married Mary Jack , of Scotch-Irish and Huguenot descent, daughter of John Jack , who was prominent in drafting the "Hannastown Declaration" in 1775 , which preceded both the Mecklenberg Declaration and the Declaration of Independence given to the world at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania , July 4, 1776 . Mr. Thompson removed to Kentucky after the close of the revolutionary war, became a comrade in arms of Daniel Boone , and died in Mason county of the state he helped to create and settle. There are many Thompson families of different branches and nationalities, the name being found in England, Ireland and Scotland . In Fayette county, Pennsylvania , it is well known and none is more honored.

(II) Andrew Finley , son of William Thompson , was born in Kentucky in 1789 , died in Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania , in 1825 . He served as a soldier in the war of 1812 with three of his brothers. He was taken prisoner when Hull surrenderd at Detroit , and after his release tramped on foot to Westmoreland county , where relatives were living. There he married Leah , the twenty-second and youngest child of Caspard Markle , of Westmoreland county , a native of Berks county, Pennsylvania (see Markle), and with his bride soon after returned to Kentucky , with her on horseback over the wilderness trail; she died in that state in 1824 . He then returned to Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania , accompanied by his two younger children, and there his death occurred. Children of Mr. and Mrs. Thompson ; William L. , died aged twenty years in Missouri ; Mary , married J. P. Crothers , of Fayette county, Pennsylvania ; Jasper Markle , of whom further.

(III) Jasper Markle , son of Andrew Finley Thompson , was born near Washington , Mason county, Kentucky , August 30, 1822 , died March 15, 1889 , at his residence in Menallen township, Fayette county, Pennsylvania , two and a half miles west of Uniontown . When he was three years of age, his parents being deceased, he was taken to Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania , where he resided with his grandmother, Mary Markle , until her death in 1832 , when he went to reside with a cousin, General Cyrus P. Markle . He was educated in the old subscription school and spent his early life in farming, clerking and bookkeeping, on the farm and in the store and paper mills of his cousin. In April, 1850 , he located in Redstone township, Fayette county, Pennsylvania , where he purchased a farm, but soon sold it and later in the same year moved to Menallen township , where he purchased a farm two and a half miles from Uniontown . Here he resided, farmed and dealt in live stock until 1862 . In that year he was appointed by President Lincoln collector of internal revenue for the twenty-first Pennsylvania district, in which office he served most effectually for four years, then resigned and returned to his home and farm. He collected and paid over to the government during his four years' service over $2,000,000, having in one day collected $100,000 on whiskey alone. He held two commissions under President Lincoln , covering his four years as collector and receiver of commutation money.

In 1863 he became one of the organizers and original directors of the First National Bank, which is now the leading financial institution of Uniontown . He was elected president of the bank, June 11, 1870 , and continued at its head until 1889 , the year of his death. This bank was established in 1854 by John T. Hogg as one of his chain of private banks; later it was owned by Isaac Skiles , Jr., until 1864 , when it was organized as a national bank, its number on the list of national banks being 270. Under President Thompson the bank prospered and entered upon its most successful career. He was a wise financier and laid deep the foundations upon which a great financial edifice has risen. He was also president of the Uniontown Building & Loan Association, director of the Fayette County Railroad, president of the Fayette County Agricultural Society, trustee of Washington and Jefferson College, and a director of the Western Theological Seminary in Allegheny City, Pennsylvania .

He was a Whig in politics until the formation of the Republican party, then cast his lot in the new party. In 1868 he was a presidential elector and cast his vote for General U. S. Grant for president. In 1873 he was elected to the state legislature from Fayette county , reversing a normal Democratic majority of one

Hoffman Cemetery

Hoffman Cemetery is just outside of Smithton, it sets on a small hill that overlooks a valley where field are planted with crops. It is a beautiful site. The meeting house sits close to the edge of the hill that overlook the road. There is a road that goes into it that makes a U around the building. You enter by the left side, and to your left are the recent graves, in the middle are recent ones and old ones. To the right of the U are a couple new ones and a lot of old ones.

Halloween Party Marks Meeting Of Polly Tippins Class

Members of the Polly Tippins class of the Allenport Methodist Church enjoyed a Halloween party at their October meeting last Friday evening.

The meeting was held in the church, and as the ladies arrived in all types of costumes, and masked, they were ushered to the downstairs social room and seated in a circle. With the members who were not masked, acting as judges, the masqueraders were paraded around the floor to be judged. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Charles Sowden as the prettiest, Mrs. Lenora Baird, ugliest, Mrs. Albert Black, hardest to guess and Mrs. Fred Anderson and Mrs. Edgar Burry, most comical pair.

Following the judging, games were played under the leadership of Mrs. Edward Benedetti and Mrs. Blanche Livingston. After the entertainment, the members retired to the sanctuary of the church where the meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Paul Williams, reading a brief article on "Thankfulness For Blessings", followed with prayer.

Routine reports followed, and thirty-one members answered to roll call.

The president then announced that the musical being planned by the Ways and Means committee will be held Sunday evening, October 31, in the Allenport Methodist Church beginning at eight o'clock. The public is invited to attend.

Four members of the class, Mrs. Mary Lykos, Mrs. Charlotte Ferren, Mrs. Sylvia Liviskie and Mrs. Blanche Livingston, celebrated their birthdays by placing their contributions in the class box as the group sang "Happy Birthday."

The meeting came to a close with the members repeating the Mizpah benediction.
